Bar Harbor Express Hit From Rear and Telescoped.

Two Pullmans Splintered Into Mass of Tangled Wreckage.

FIFTY SERIOUSLY INJURED

Railroad Officials Admit Signals in Use Were Not of Approved Type—Government to Make Immediate Investigation.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 2.—Twenty-six persons were killed and nearly fifty injured, some of whom may die, in a rear-end collision shortly before 7 o'clock this morning, on the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, six miles north of here. The first section of the White Mountain Express bound for New York, speeding along at probably 40 miles an hour, in a thick fog, rushed by a danger signal, it is said, and crashed into the rear of the second section of the Bar Harbor Express, standing 100 feet beyond the block signal.

The White Mountain engine cleaved through the two rear Pullman cars, both of wood, splitting them in two and tossing their wreckage and three score of mangled human beings, some alive, some dead, on either side of the track.

The third car, also of wood, and occupied by 40 boys on their way from a Summer camp at Monmouth, Maine, was lifted into the air and fell on its side crumpled up and crushing two of the boys to death and injuring others.

Some of the victims of the two rear Pullmans were hurled from berths over a fence paralleling the track 50 feet distant; mattresses, bedding and clothing found lodgment in the telegraph wires.

It was the third serious wreck which the New Haven has suffered within a year, and inaugurated the first day of the regime of Howard Elliott, the newly elected head of the road. Mr. Elliott, returning from his Summer home in New Hampshire to assume his duties, passed over the scene of the wreck on an earlier train less than an hour before.

Practically all the passengers on both trains were returning home from summer vacattions, and all but two of a camping party of nine, guests of S. Crozer Fox, of Elkins Park, Pa., returning from Maine, were wiped out. Fox was among those killed. No one was hurt in the White Mountain train.

The Death List.

The death list from the coroner's report and from the list issued by the railroad campany, is:

Killed in the wreck:
William Altschul, Norfolk, Va.
Harold Every, New York.
Miss Margaret Armstrong, Washington, D. C.
Miss Marie L. Bullitt, Philadelphia.
Albert Green, New York.
Royar Hotchkiss, New Haven.
Miss Merritt, Philadelphia.
Miss Harriet Niddle, Torresdale, Pa.
Miss Murphy, New York.
H. F. Martin, Bryn, Pa.
Mrs. H. F. Martin Bryer, Mawr, Penn.
Daniel McQuillen, Jr., Philadelhia.
Miss Stoddart, New York.
S. Crozer Fox, Elkins Par, Pa.
Frank B. Butle, Scranton, Pa.
Miss Emilie Davis, Philadelphia.
Miss Agnews White, Boston.
Robert M. Yahn, Philadelphia.
Died at hostpital:
Philo Hotchkiss, New Haven.
George T. Korga, New York.
Mary Jane———, residence unknown.
Died at Meriden:
Harry K. Inmar, New York.
Unidentified dead: Elderly man, aged 60, 145 pounds, graw Van Dyke beard, otherwise smoothly shaven, clothed only in union suit. Elderly woman, weighing about 200 pounds, evidently of German birth; had gold band ring, inscribed "For Life and For Death 4-30-70."
Woman, aged 35; had diamond cluster ring engraved "D. B. L." (or B. B. L.) on left hand, locket with "F. B. Rand."
Man, grey hair, brown eyes, smooth face (inquiries made for Hale Steinman, Lancaster, Pa.)

Signal Defective.

The New Haven officials were frank to admit tonight that the so-called "banjo" block signal system which on this part of the line has not yet been re-placed by the semaphore system recommended by the public utilties commission last December, was in a measure responsible for the wreck although the question as to whether the engine of the White Mountain train Augustus B. Miller was making too much speed under the weather conditions is under investigation.

G. W. Elkins and his wife, of Philadelphia, were at the office of Genaral Manager Bardo this afternoon seeking information about members of their family. When no information was obtainable they went to the wreck scene in an automobile.

Anxiety regarding the safety of Thomas Nelson Page, ambassador to Italy, who was known to left York Harbor Me., yesterday was set at rest this afternoon when it was found that Mr. Page was registered at a hotel in New York.

SUPPORT FOR CURRENCY BILL

Senate Committee Hears Recommendations from Leading Bankers Regarding Proposed Changes in the Money Measure

Washington, Sept. 2.—Support for many principles of the administration currency bill was drawn from leading members of the American Bankers' Association today at the first session of the hearings began by the Senate Committee on Banking and Currency. Representatives of the recent conference of bankers at Chicago who appeared to present recommendations for amendments to the bill, declared they did not come in a spirit of antagonism to the bill, but in the hope that it could be so amended as to make the new system more "attractive" and more "flexible."

"We do not fear government control," said Sol Wexler, vice president of the Whitney-Central Bank of New Orleans and one of the chief spokesmen for the delegation.

"We want only minority representation on the Federal reserve board; not to exercise undue influence upon its actions, but to prevent abuses that might arise."

The strongest endorsement of the general purposes of the administration currency reform plan came near the close of Mr. Wexler's examination, when Senator Crawford, a Republican member of the committee, declared the country banks of a State like South Dakota had nothing to gain and would suffer greatly by being compelled to withdraw part of their capital from active business within the State, and send it outside to a regional reserve bank.

"I think the Senator has drawn the picture too dark and gloomy," said Mr. Wexler. "I don't think banks should be compelled to enter the new system, bt it could be made attractive enough to induce them to come in. There would be real benefits even for a State that would have little to do with a regional reserve bank."

James B. Forgan, president of the First National Bank of Chicago and chairman of the Chicago conference, and Mr. Wexler testified today and covered part of the ground embraced in the series of suggestions for amendments to the bill made public by the bankers a week ago. Suggestions upon which they dwelt with chief emphasis today were:

That the banks rather than the Federal treasury, issue currency.

That a central bank, or not more than five regional banks, would be preferable to the proposed twelve regional reserve banks.

That membership of National banks in the new Federal system should be optional, not compulsory as the bill provides.

That the amount of regional reserve bank capital for which each National bank must subscribe, should be reduced from twenty per cent to ten per cent of the subscribing bank's capital stock.

That one regional reserve bank should not be compelled to rediscount the commercial paper, held by another.

The sharp struggle that is to be waged in the Senate committee before it can reach any agreement upon currency reform legislation became apparent early in the hearing. Questions by Senators Hitchcock and O'Gorman, Democrats, indicated that their views on certain provisions of the bill were at variance with those of the party leaders who engineered the measure through the preliminary stages in the House; and Republican opposition to many features of the b[ill] was pronounced.

The suggestions made by the bankers' committee, that representation be given to the banking interests on the Federal reserve board, were met with a couiter suggestion by Senator Weeks, Republican which it is understood will be advanced as a possible amendment when the Senate committee begins consideration of the bill.

This was that the bankers of the country should be allowed to submit to the President a list of fifty or one hundred men, and the President be authorized to select from this list the four members of the Federal reserve board.

Members of the bankers' committee present today included:

George M. Reynolds, president Continental and Commercial National Bank, Chicago; Festus J. Wade, president Mercantile Trust Company, St. Louis; E. J. Hill, vice president National Bank, Norwalk, Norwalk, Conn.; Joe Chapman, vice president Northwestern National Bank, Minneapolis; Robert F. Maddox, vice president American National Bank, Atlanta.

VESSEL DRIVEN ASHORE

Schooner R. F. C. Hartly a Complete Wreck—Two of Crew Drowned

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 2.—The three-masted schooner R. F. C. Hartly, was driven ashore in a squall 18 miles south of Bodies Island on this coast today. Two of her crew were drowned before lifesavers could reach the wreck. Five were rescued. The vessel and her cargo will be a total loss. The Hartley was bound from New York to Charleston, S. C., with a cargo of salt.

Life savers made several attempts to launch life boats but were driven back by high seas. They finally managed to launch a boat and went to the rescue of the ship wrecked men. When they reached the vessel two men had disappeared. Captain Sprague and four other men were clinging to the riggings. The were brought ashore. The Hartley was built in 1888 in Bath, Me. She was of 898 tons net.

WILSON RETURNS TO WASHINGTON TODAY

Will Hear Hale's Report On Conditions In Mexico.

BRYAN STILL OPTIMISTIC

Sate Department Officials now Proclaim That the Situation is Encauraging—Americans Continue Exodus.

Washington Sept. 2.—President Wilson, who will return to Washington tomorrow morning from Cornish, N. H., is expected to meet William Bayard Hale, now en route here from a special mission to Mexico for the administration, Mr. Hale's report on conditions in Mexico since the arrival of John Lind with the peace proposals of American government, will be made direct to the President.

Unofficial reports reached Washington today that Mr. Lind who has been at Vera Cruz since the rejection by the Huerta Government of the American proposals would return to the United States within a few days. No confirmation of this could be procured at the state department. Secretary of State Bryan said just before leaving for a lecture engagement tonight at York, Pa., that he knew nothing of such an intention by Mr. Lind.

"I had a message from Mr. Lind today," said the Secretary, "but it did not concern his movements. As to the Mexican situation, it can be said that matters look encouraging."

Since the departure of the President from Washington the daily characterization of the Mexican situation at the state department "has been unchanged." The renewal of the word "encouraging" just as the President is returning to the Capital was regarded in official circles as significant of possible developments. Mr. Bryan, however, had no explanation for his statement, except a smile the first he has worn in discussing the tense situation with Mexico for many days.

Mr. Bryan today discussed protection of American property in Mexico with Senator Swanson, of Virginia, who called to submit a complaint of of a sugar company near Vera Cruz which did not wish to leave its property unguarded by Americans. Several requests for further information as to the purpose of this government with regard to protection of American property in Mexico have been received here and it is probable that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan will confer on this mater tomorrow.

Consul Lespinasse at Tenosique, Mexico, reported to the state department today that the seizure of a steamer by revolutionists had held up eight Americans who were ready to leave for the United States. The consul said he had made a strong represenation in behalf of his government and believes they will not be mistreated.

Counul Canada reported from Vera Cruz that a large number of Americans were planning to embark there Thursday on the steamer Mexicano for Galveston. Nine refugees on the Norwegian steamer City of Tampico, are due in Texas City tomorrow. Consul Letcher reported that many Americans in the vicinity of Chihuahua were disposed to postpone following the advice of President Wilson in regard to leaving the country insisting that they would rather face hardships and the relatively small danger of present conditionse than abandon their property.

Consul General Shanklin gave notice than many Americans at Mexico City were desirous of leaving for Manzanillo.

It was reported that about 20 persons wished to get out of that district, indications pointing to many more refugees from Mexico City and Guadalapara districts embarking at this port. Consul General Shanklin reported having provided transportation for 21 refugees by West coast, sending all to Manxanillo as that route was cheaper than by way of Salina Cruz.

Deputy Consul General Allen is at Torreon arranging for such Americans as desire to leave the country. Distressing conditions are reported there.

Held For Ransom.

El Paso, Texas, Sept. 2.—A. W. McCormick of San Antonia, Superintendent of the Palomas Land and Cattle company in Northern Chihuahua, is held prison by Meximo Castillo's Mexican free booters for a ransom of $10,000. This is the second time he has been held for ransom. During the Orozco revolution he was forced to pay $5,000.

Yesterday a Mexican brought a report to Hachita, New Mexico, that McCormick was held a prisoner again and today an El Paso bank received a request from McCormick through a friend to forward $10,000. The monye was sent to Hachita, whence it is to be taken to the camp of Castillo.

TWO HOUSES COLLAPSE.

Thirteen Families Who Occupied the Buildings Caught in Wreckage.

Dublin, Ireland, Sept. 2. — Two houses in Church street occupied by 13 families, suddenly collapsed tonight, burying all the inmates. Seven dead and injured were quickly extracted by rescuers. It is feared the death toll will be heavy as it is reported 53 persons are missing. Piteous cries came from the ruins as many persons, still alive, were imprisoned in the wreckage.

The houses fell without the slightest warning.

Church street consists of old, dilapidated tenant buildings occupied by the very poor classes.

DEBATE LEVY OF INCOME TAX

Root Appeals for "Justice" to Wealthy New Yorkers—Senator Lewis Declares They Should Pay for Benefits

Washington, Sept. 2.—An appeal by Senator Root for "justice to the people of New York" in the levying of the income tax, and a reply by Senator Lewis, of Illinois, who declared that the chosen few of wealth should be made to pay for the benefits of government, marked today's tariff debate in the Senate.

Senator Root declared that his State, who paid so large proportion of the Civil War income tax had voluntarily surrendered its constitutional protection against unfair taxation, on the conviction that the wisdom of self-control and moderation would stay the other States from combining to heap upon it the burden of taxation. He said that the men upon whom the income tax would fall were those upon whom New York depended as the course for meeting its great yearly expenses. He attacked the $3,000 exemption as relieving the agricultural States from the burden of taxation, and advocated a $1,000 exemption.

Senator Lewis said New York had failed notably to make its rich men bear their share of the burden of government and that in accordance with the growing idea that where the States had failed to act, the Federal government must act for them, he was ready to make the rich pay. He said Senator Root himself had preached this doctrine while Secretary of State.

"Who are the people of New York for whom the Senator is solicitious?" inquired the Illinois Senator. "Are they those who breed around Wall Street and flock to the Waldorf-Astoria? Are they those whose names are seldom found on the assessor's list, but who hover around the Mediterranean in the Summer, and the Islands of the Carribean in the Winter? Are there no poor and humble in his State? Why should the Senator ask that 'my people' should be exempt from the burden of governmen?

"The object of Democrats is not to make illegal war on our National wealth, but legal war on legal wealth. With war hanging over us with Mexico, who would be the first to hasten to this capital to have the army and navy be sent out? It would be 'my people' who would want the farmer's son's life sacrificed to protect their property, and prevent invasion of the country. Let them pay for the great benefits of government which they enjoy, and let not all the burden be placed on the helpless that they may become the hopeless, too."

Several items passed over on the first reading of the bill were agreed to during the closing hour of the day's session. The Norris amendment to free list substitutes for office, and one by Senator Jones to remove the duty from jutebags for grain exports were defeated.

Tonight the Senate Democrats caussed to undertake final disposition of various disputed sections of the bill that had been referred back to the Finance committee. The two most important matters to be considered were the proposed increase in the income tax on larger incomes, and the cotton futures tax amendments.

LUMBERTON GETS $5,000 MORE.

Total of $10,000 for Site for $75,000 Public Building.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Sept. 2.—The deficiency bill which was reported to the House today carried an additional appropriation of $5,000 for the site upon which a $75,000 public building will be erected at Lumberton. Representative Dodwin had already secured $5,000, but it was found that $5,00 more was needed. The next public buildings will carry the appropriation for the building.

Mayor White and Frank Gough, of Lumberton, conferred with Mr. Godwin and officials of the Treasury Department with reference to selecting the site for the new building it is understood they have about decided where the building will be located.

Representative and Mrs. Godwin and Misses Ruby and Mattie Belle Godwin left for Dunn tonight.

LET UP ON STEEL TRUST

Levy Would Stop Government Suit Because of Trust's Good Deeds

Washington Sept. 2.—Representative Levy, of New York, today introduced a resolution to direct the attorney general to suspend further proceedings in the Federal dissolution suit against the United States Steel Corporation upon the ground that the corporation during the past decade had expended $1,575,000,000 for labor, decreased the cost of producing steel and increasing iron and steel exports.

OUTLINES

President Wilson will return to Washington today from Cornish, N. H. Upon his return he is expected to hear a report on conditions in Mexico from William Bayard Hale, now en route from a special mission in the trouble zones.

Harry K. Thaw must remain in jail at Sherbrooke until Judge Matthew Hutchinson renders his decision on the question of sustaining or dismissing the writ of habeas corpus on which arguments were heard yesterday.

Twenty-six persons were killed, and probably fifty injured, in a rear-end collision on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, six miles north of New Haven, Conn.

Former President Taft addressed the members of the American Bar Association in session at Montreal, making a plea for greater independence of the judiciary.

ATTACK BEGUN ON "HARD COAL TRUST"

Suit Filed to Dissolve Reading Company's Control of Coal Interests.

SECOND STEP IN BIG FIGHT

Attorney General McReynolds to Wage War on Most Patential Combination in the Anthracte Coal Fields.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 2.—Attorney General McReynold first and most important attack on the "hard coal trust" was begin here today with the filing of a civil suit for the dissolution of the Reading Company's control of coal mining and coal-carrying railroads—the most potential combination in the anthracite fields. The Reading Company with its subsidiary and allied corporations, including the Central Railroad of New Jersey and certain of their officers and directors, are charged by the Federal Government with violating both the Sherman anti-trust law and the commodities clause of the Inter-State Commerce act, in an attempt to monopolize the production and transportation of anthracite.

This combination, controlling at the present time 63 per cent of the entire unmined deposits of anthracite and marketing about 30 per cent of the annual supply, will own or control in time, if not dissolved, the Attorney General warns, "every ton of commercially available anthracite known to exist."

The importance of the suit is emphasized with the declaration that in this case "only the law can afford relief." If it pointed out that in almost every other industry it is at least possible for a monopoly to be broken by the influx of fresh capital attracted by high profits, but against a monopoly of hard coal, the supply of which is limited, there can be no such protection.

Second Step in Fight.

Today's suit is the second step of the Department of Justice to solve the "hard coal trust" situation since the decision of the Supreme Court last December cancelling the so-called sixty-five per cent contracts and ordering the dissolution of the Temple Iron Company. The court held the government had failed to prove a general combination among all the coal-carrying railroads and left open to future litigation the so-called minor combinations of which the Reading is the most important.

Former Attorney General Wickersham filed a civil suit along similar lines and which is now pending against the Delaware Lackawanna and Western Railroad Company.

Attorney General McReynolds now is considering the question of attacking other alleged combinations of coal-carrying railroads and coal mining companies, particularly the Lehigh Valley and the Erie and their allied coal companies. No decision as to probable action has yet been reached.

The Parties to Suit.

Following corporations and individuals are named as defendants in the petition in equity filed today:

Reading Company, capital 140,000,000; debt, $130,000,000.

Philadelphia & Reading Railway Company, capital, $42,481,700; debt, $49,385,582.

The Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company, capital, $8,000,000; debt. $74,576,529.

The Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, capital, $27,436,800; debt, $47,848,000.

The Lehigh & Wilkes-Barre Coal Company, capital, $9,212,500; debt, $16,996,000.

The Leigh Coal & Navigation Company, capital, $26,5557,950; debt, $21,409,333.

Wilmington & Northern Railroad Company, capital, $1,500,000; debt, $894,000.

Lehigh & Hudson River Railway Company, capital, $1,340,000; debt $3,229,000.

Lehigh & New England Railroad Company, capital $1,000,000; debt, $7,770,000.

Geroge F. Baer, Philadelphia; George F. Baker, New York; Edward T. Stotesbury, Philadelphia; Henry C. Frick, New York; Peter A. B. Widener, Philadelphia; Henry A. du Point, United States Senator from Delaware; Daniel Willard, Baltimore; Henry P. McKean, and Samuel Dickson, Philadelphia.

Dissable Holding Co.

The nine individual defendants are declared to be responsible for the continuance of the combinations and monopolizations embodied in the formation of the Reading Holding Company, which is declared to be "in and of itself" a combination in restraint of trade and a monopoly.

Reading Company's control of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey; of the Philadelphia & Reading Railway Company; of the Philadelphia & Reading Coal & Iron Company; of the Schuylkill Navigation Company, and of the Wilmington & Northern Railroad Company.

Dissolution also is sought of the joint control by the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey and the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company of the Lehigh & Hudson River Railway Company, and the Lehigh & New England Railroad Company.

Wants Real Dissolution

In seeking these dissolutions, Attorney General McReynolds, who is averse to the pro-rate distribution of the stock of a dissolved "trust" as being inadequate, specifically urges that the stocks be disposed of under the supervision and direction of the court to persons not the stockholders or agents or otherwise under the control or influence of the present owners. Pending the distribution the govern-

Southern Beauties

AT CONSERVATION EXPOSITION

(From top to bottom: Mrs. Homer Van Derventer, president of Woman's Board; Mrs. W. W. Woodruff and Mrs. W. S. Shields.)

Knoxville, Tenn., Sept. 2.—The very cream of feminine beauty and aristocracy of the South are aiding their husbands, fathers and brothers in making the National Conservation Exposition, which opened here Monday and will continue until the last of November, one of the most successful ventures of its kind ever attempted below the Mason and Dixon line. Eleven large and beautiful buildings dedicated to various industries, and many smaller buildings are scattered about the grounds, which with lakes and drives embrace more than a hundred acres.

TAFT ADDRESSES BARRISTERS

Advocates Greater Independence of The Judiciary Before American Bar Association—Wilson's Mexican Policy Endorsed.

Montreal, Sept. 2.—The President of the United States, an ex-president, and a former candidate for the presidency, figured today by name, or by actual presence, in the proceedings of the American Bar Association's annual meeting. The association adopted a resolution endorsing President Wilson's action in regard to Mexico. Ex-President Taft addressed the members tonight, advocating greater independence of the judiciary. Judge Alton B. Parker, Democratic candidate for president in 1904, proposed the resolution unanimously adopted, for the approval of the celebration of a "Century of Peace" between the United States and Great Britain.

Mr. Taft's address delivered at Royal Victory college, was the event of the evening. His subject was "The Selection and Tenure of Judges" Tomorrow the ex-President will speak before the section on legal education on "The Social Importance of Proper Standards for Admission to the Bar."

Reports from 23 committees were discussed today by delegates to the association. The committee on commercial law enforced the Pomerene bill on uniform bills of lading, and opposed repeal of the national bankruptcy act.

A resolution asking the association to condemn use of the "third degree" was disapproved by the committee The committee also disapproved abolishing the life tenure of Federal judges.

The committee on uniform state laws submitted a so-called "marriage evasion act," and a special committee reported in favor of uniform laws for compenaation for industrial accidents and their prevention.

Thomas W. Shelton, chairman of the committee on uniform judicial procedure, reported that ex-President Taft's "Dream of inter-state judicial relations" seemed near consummation."

THAW'S ONLY GAIN IS FURTHER DELAY

Result of Habeas Corp Proceedings Pending Decision of Judge.

CASE ARGUED IN CHAMBE[RS]

Judge Must Decide on Sustaining o[r] Dismissing Writ—The Prisoner Spends Day of Alternate Joy and Depression.

Sherbrooke, Que., Sept. 2.—Harry K. Thaw won more delay today in his fight against return to the Matteawan Asylum, and tonight he was back in his cell at the Sherbrooke jail. There he will remain until Superior Court Judge Matthew Hutchinson renders his decision on the question of sustaining or dismissing the habeas corpus writ, arguments on which were heard today in chambers. The decision may come tomorrow, but more probably on Thursday.

It was a day of alternate joy and depression for Thaw. At the opening of the hearing he faced a new and dangerous opponent in Aime Geoffrion, of Quebec, special emissary from the Provincial Attorney General and Premeir, Sir Lomor Gouin, and from his lips Thaw heard that the Attorney General was insistent that there be no more delay in the case, and that the habeas corpus writ failing, other steps would be taken to insure Thaw's release and seizure by the immigration authorities. This would mean the start of the return trip to the asylum on the Hudson.

Thaw Nervous.

From his counsel Thaw heard arguments against sustaining the writ; from them also he heard ineffectual pleas for delay; from the crowd that packed the court house and streamed over the lawn he heard cheers and shouts and words of encouragement. He was nervous throughout the ordeal, and returned to his cell tired out with the excitement.

The Arguments.

Counsel for New York State argued that the writ should be sustained, and Thaw's lawyers opposed it, Shurtleff, while Frazier and McKeown spoke in turn, characteriding the proceedings by which Jerome Boudreau, the chief of police of Coaticook, had asked for the writ, as smacking of hypocrisy. McKeown spoke last.

"This case," he said, "by reason of wide publicity, has assumed a position of international importance, the eyes of the world are centered here. The writ of habeas corpus is known throughout the world. Although we have searched every record we have failed to find an instance where the writ was resorted to in a case like this. If it is sustained, it will revolutionize the whole basic principle of habeas corpus."

Here he emphasized that the use of the writ by Boudreau "in Thaw's behalf," without Thaw's consent, was, in his opinion, a fraud and subterfuge. "It is being used," he continued, "to hand Thaw from one jurisdiction to another. The hypocrisy of Boudreau's attitude is apparent."

"As an alien under the British flag, Thaw has his rights, and is entitled to his full measure of time to prepare for trial. We shall carry the case to the foot of the throne, if necessary."

M. Geoffrion left Sherbrooke this afternoon for Quebec, and did not announce whether he would return.

"I do not know," he said, "whether Thaw will be deported or not. I do not care, but our provincial jails cannot be used as a boarding house or as a place to escape the immigration laws."

The belief prevailed in Sherbrooke tonight that if the writ is thrown out the attorney general will itake immediate steps to have the commitment quashed. Thaw then will be free, that is, for the brief instant before he is taken in charge by the immigration authorities.

TWO KILLED IN CRASH

Electric Car Smashes Wagon Filled With Picnic Party

Charlotte, N. C., Sept. 2.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon an interurban electric car coming into Mount Holly from Gastonia, struck a wagon filled with a picnic party from South Point on their way to Riverside Park, Mount Holly, for an outing, killing two and injuring four others. None of those injured was seriously hurt, and they were able to be taken to their homes. The killed are Miss Emma Sandford aged 19, and Isaac Brymer, aged 20. The horse and mule driven to the wagon were both killed. The picnic party attempted to cross the track ahead of the car, which was coming down grade, when the car struck the wagon hurling the occupants into the air killing the two persons named, and the team instantly. A sister and brother of the young woman killed were also in the wagon, but were not seriously injured.

Colon, Panama, Sept. 2.—The visiting American Shriners sailed for home today, bound for New Orleans. Prince George of Battenburg, the captain and officers of the British cruiser New Zealand, were the guests today of Lieutenant Colonel Goethals, who took them on a sight-seeing expedition.

McGraw Castoffs Are Going Good

New York, Sept. 2.—Five of the younger players in the big leagues are men who have been either tried out or signed by the Giants in some previous season. In a recent fanning session it was declared by a supporter of the Giants that John McGraw had never permitted a star, in embrionic state, slip away from him. The retort by a fan, who recounted the instances of playing being passed along, added keenness of an additional topic to the discussion.

"Dick" Rudolph, of the Boston Braves, belonged to the Giants in the fall of 1910 and the following spring. A year ago George Pierce a southpaw twirler, now with the Cubs, was taken on a spring trip, with the Giants. Five year ago "Benny" Meyer, who has been utility fielder for the Brooklyn team this season, was tried out by McGraw, "Jack" Johnson, of the St. Louis Browns, was sized up for two springs by McGraw and passed along. Two years ago Hugh High, of the Detroit team, was listed with the Giants but was passed on without a trial.

JUST IMAGINE!

How would the Washingtno Senators stack up with Lefty Russel on the slab to take his turn with Walter Johnson and Joe Boehling? Pretty good, eh? Well, this thing might have happened if Clark Griffith had heeded the advice of his friend Sol Williams, Fort Worth fan, who knows a ball player when he sees one. Last Fall Williams wrote Griffith to send some one to look him over and to be sure and put in a draft for the Panther offside flinger. At that time Griffith had his team fighting it out with the Red Sox and Athletics for the American League pennant, and let Sol's tip as to Russell slip his mind. In the meantime the White Sox drafted the youngster.

Would Aid Sericulture.

The judicious payment of bounties for fresh cocoons and spinning, and, above all, instruction in practical sericulture in elementary schools, as well as agricultural colleges, are today recommended as the most efficacious means of combating the decline of sericulture in France.

DAVID'S

GOOD service in the matter of clothes is the thing we're trying to give to the men of this community.

Good service involves knowing what you ought to have in matters of quality; it means seeing that you get the best possible value for your money; and that means, of course, pricing the goods so we can give that sort of service.

It means style, too; and good fit. It means having clothes that will fit such figures as our illustration shows—portly men, stout men, short men; hard-to-fit men.

Service means, also, telling you about it; we're doing that.

NAPS' BALLOON PUNCTURED

White Sox Took Both Ends of a Double Bill—Senators Defeated the League Leaders—Champs Won from Yanks

The running spurt of the Cleveland Naps, which for the past two weeks had revived hopes of Napland fans, was rudely halted by the Chicago White Sox yesterday when they took both ends of a double-header, the first by a three to one and the second by a nine to three score. The Naps are now seven and a half games in the rear of the Athletics.

The Mackmen were losers in yesterday's pitcher's battle between Engle and Shawkey, the Senators winning by a two to one score. Engle allowed only five hits and Shawkey four.

The Boston RedSox showed glimmers of their old-time championship form in yesterday's game with the New York Yankees, developing some swift base running. Three scores were tallied from second base on singles, and a double steal resulted in another of the Champs' runs.

Naps' Streak Stopped

Cleveland, Sept. 2.—Chicago beat Cleveland in both games of a double-header here today. This effectually put an end to Cleveland's winning streak which had lasted through eight straight games.

PHILS GET FORFEITED GAME

President Lynch Reversed Umpire Brennan's Decision Forfeiting Saturday's Game at Philadelphia to Giants

New York, Sept. 2.—Reversing the decision of Umpire Brennan, President Thomas J. Lynch, o fthe National League, announced this afternoon that the game of Saturday, August 30th between the New York and Philadelphia clubs will count as a victory for the Philadelphia team. Umpire Brennan awarded the contest to the Giants by a 9 to 0 score when the Philadelphia management was unable to clear a section of the bleachers back of centerfield claiming the moving spectators handicapped New York batters. The decision almost precipitated a riot and the members of the New York club were afforded police protection to their station.

President Lynch states that Umpire Brennan exceeded his authority in declaring the game forfeited to the New York club and formally awards it to the Philadelphia team by a score of 8 to 6, which was the score by which the Phillies led in the ninth inning when the game was stopped by the umpire.

"As Mr. Brennan's ruling is without precedent," President Lynch's decision reads, "I waive all technical procedure in ruling on this protest, in order that a prompt disposition of the affair may be had and the best interests of the game may be preserved."

Assault Charged

Philadelphia, Sept. 2.—A warrant charging William Brennan, National League umpire, with assault and battery and inciting to riot, was issued here today on the complaint of Henry F. Russell, superintendent of the Art Club, of Philadelphia, who claims that he was injured by the umpire during the disorder which followed the forfeiture by the umpire to New York of the game at the local National League park last Saturday.

TIGHT CAROLINA RACE

Champions Will Not Be Known Until Final Game is Played

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 2.—By winning two games from Raleigh while Winston was winning from Greensboro, the Durham team, in the Carolina Baseball Association, climbed within one-half game of Winston, leader in the race for the pennant. Durham has two games scheduled with Raleigh tomorrow, the last day of the league's season, while Winston has one scheduled with Greensboro on the local grounds.

Should Durham and Winston lose all the games scheduled tomorrow Winston would win the pennant by a full game. Durham's only chance to win the pennant is to defeat Raleigh both games scheduled and for Winston to lose, although the Tobacconists will be on a tie with Winston should both teams win tomorrow's schedule.

COBB VS. JACKSON

Labor Day's double bills brought another slump to Ty Cobb, the $100,000 Georgia Peach, and Sockless Joe, the Carolina Clouter, Ty sliding back three points, while Jackson lost one unit. Out of seven trys Jackson connected safely twice, while Cobb out of eight visits found a couple that suited him.

Accuses Pitchers Aiding Jackson

Detroit, Sept. 1.—The famed Ty Cobb is noted for being mighty peculair. Just now the redoubtable Tyrus is trailing Joe Jackson of the Naps crew for premier batting honors in the Johnson circuit. In this connection comes the following interesting story:

Tyrus Raymond Cobb is no longer the confident chipper swatman that he was in mid-season. When General Jackson pushed his way to the batting lead and had not been shoved back to second place in June, Cobb told a baseball scribe: "Don't worry about me, I'll head 'em all the same as usual. If Jackson hits .400, I'll hit .401; if he hits .500, I'll hit .501. Just make a litle bet on Tyrus Raymond Cobb to lead all the batters in the world this season the same as always."

But now the Georgian is singing a diffierent tale and he's worrying because Jackson keeps the lead. Also some one has kidded him into believing that the pitchers are framing it to make it easy for Jackson to beat him to the batting wire.

When the Nationals were in this city Cobb approached Walter Johnson, the league's premier hurler, and said: "Say, Walter, is it true that you're pitching 'em in the groove to Jackson and saving all your stuff for me?"

Johnson merely laughed at this ridiculous accusation and thought it a joke until Cobb continued: "Well, it's funny. I know I have to work my head off to get a hit against you and every once in a while my rival for batting honors cracks one against the fence. And it's the same with the other pitchers. They give me all their stuff and I find it hard to keep going. I know I'm not popular with some of the players, but I'd think the pitchers would think more of their own averages than to dish up easy balls for Jackson to hit."

Cobb is plainly worried at his inability to pass the Nap slugger. And his worries have been increased because the Detroit papers every couple of days publish comparative standings, showing the Jackson and Cobb race for the batting championship. Ty had confidently expected to be far ahead of Joe by this time, and his lead is getting on the nerves of the Georgian.

News to Him.

"Why is it that they never place the pictures of living men on bank notes?" asked the fellow who had become rich by writing the words of "popular" songs. "Don't they?" the poet replied.

BRAVES ARE GIANT KILLERS

Took Third Game of Series from McGraw's Men Yesterday—Phils Take Third Straight—Pirates Won—Cubs Won

The Boston Braves took the third game of the series from the New York Giants yesterday, the score being five to two. McGraw used three twirlers, Tesrean, Fromme and Crandall, in an effort to stop the winning streak of the Braves, but without any effect. Perdue kept the leaders' hits well scattered and was seldom in trouble.

The Phillies made it three straight from the Brooklyn Dodgers by taking another three to two game yesterday. The visitors took the lead in the fourth, Brooklyn having several chances to win afterward, but failing in the pinches.

Bill Luhrsen, Pirate recruit from Albany, Ga., held the Reds to seven hits yesterday, and won for the Pirates after a bad start, walking the first two men to face him.

Chicago's pitchers were best in the pinches, and the Cubs took two listless games from the St. Louis Cardinals five to three and six to one. Jim Vaughan, a recruit, held the home team helpless in the second game.

ATLANTA CRACKERS HOPEFUL.

Only Two Games in Rear of Mobile With Three Games Remaining.

Atlanta, Sept. 2.—Atlanta today reduced Mabile's lead in the Southern League pennant race to two games, winning an exciting contest 4 to 1.

While odds tonight favored Mobile in predictions of the pennant winner, Atlanta was much enthused over the improvement in the local club's chance to win out by a sensationally close margain. In order to win the pennant, Atlanta must take all three of the remaining games, to be played against Mobile here.

Athletics-Giants Evenly Matched

They say figures never lie, and if that's the case then the Athletics and the Giants will be weaker when they meet in the 1913 world's series than when they clashed for baseball's highest honors back in 1911.

At this time two years ago the Giants were hitting harder than they are now and the Athletics have sloughed 10 points in team batting from the figure they owned at a corresponding period in 1911. Only Shafter and Fletcher of the present Giants are hitting above .300. Two years ago McGraw had four .300 batters in Meyers, Doyle, Fletcher and Herzog.

Connie Mack, however, when it comes to .300 hitters is better fixed now than in 1911. In that season he had had Danny Murphy, McInnis, Collins and Baker batting more than .300. Now he has these same four and Strunk, Oldring and Eddie Murphy also in that circle. These seven are banging the ball at about .310. The seven Giant regulars are hitting at about .289. In team batting the Giants of 1913 are at the same notch as the 1911 team, while the Athletics are 10 points lower.

Connie Mack in 1911 had Coombs, Plank and Bender to pit against the Giants. He still has these three but Coombs must not be reckoned a factor until he proves that he can come back after his siege of typhoid. To take Jack's place Connie has Houck, Shawkey, Brown and Bush. The combined average of these four and Bender and Plank in winning games is around .673. The Giants have Mathewson, Marquard, Demaree and Tesrau and their combined average is around the .680 mark.

Connie has six pitchers who might be termed as regulars and yet it's doubtful if more than one of the four youngsters is called upon. Shawkey appears to be made of sturdier stuff than Houck, Brown or Bush, but take it as a whole and Demaree and Tesrau, the second string men for the New York club, appear to have it on the entire bunch that will back up Bender and Plank of the Athletics.

A brief survey does not reveal off hand the winner of the 1913 world's series, but it shows both clubs more evenly matched and both a trifle weaker than when they got together in 1911.

Hartford, Conn., Sept. 2.—The second day's racing at Charter Oak Park by the grand circuit horses was featured by the excellent performance of Frank Bogash, Jr., and a hard fought race in the 2:09 trot which had to go unfinished after six heats. Murphy put Frank Bogash, Jr., through in the Nutmeg stake after the gelding dropped the first heat to Leata J., it being a fight all the way between the mare and the gelding. The 2:09 trot produced a new 2:10 trotter in James W., who captured the first heat, and also was marked by redusing the record of Ruth McGregor to 2:07 1-2, furnishing the best of the day's excitement. Holly Rood Ben was an easy winner in the juvenile.

BEACH HAS NEW "SEASON"

Weather Conditions Yesterday Not Very Pleasant—Some Anxiety

Wrightsville Beach yesterday experienced a bit of the storm that has been brewing off the coast since Monday night, when the local weather office received notice to display storm warnings because of a disturbance that promised to develop considerable intensity along the Carolina and Virginia coasts. Yesterday the wind reached a velocity of 25 miles an hour and a high tide held forth practically all day. About 4 P. M. the tide put on extra force and began coming in with a vim until the water reached a depth of two feet under the cottages on the sound side of the car tracks, and also came up under those on the ocean side. A number of cottagers preferred to come to the city for the night, while the Tidewater Power Co., kept things ready to bring out others last night if conditions grew worse.

RATE EXPERTS' CONFERENCE

Just Freight Rate Association Officials Meet With Corporation Commission—New State Botanist —Charters

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 2.—J. L. Graham, of Winston-Salem; J. T. Ryan, High Point; W. S. Creighton, Charlotte, and J. C. Forester, Greensboro, freight rate experts, were here today in conference with the Corporation Commissioners concerning the pending inter-State freight rate negotiations with the railroad companies. There was a general discussion as to the situation and possible resumption of negotiations with the railroads for settlement. However, nothing was given out as to the conclusions. There is a right general expectation that there will be a resumption of conferences with the railroad officials very soon now, with a possibility of a settlement being reached in the most important issues before the convening of the Legislature September 24th.

C. H. Waldron, of North Dakota, arrived today to take up duties as assistant botanist in that division of the State Department of Agriculture. He will work under the direction of State Agronomist J. L. Burgess and give special attention to the analysis of seed. The work is done by the department without cost to the farmers sending in the seed and has been the means of great advancement in varieties as well as a "big stick" over the seed companies to deter them from shipping defective seed into the State.

Charters were issued for the G. A. Waller Lumber Co., Clinton, capital $10,000 authorized and $1 500 subscribed, by G. A. Waller and others; the Gentry Co., Thurmond, Wilkes county, capital $10,000 by C. C. Gentry and others, for mercantile business; the Paris Photo Play Co., of Winston-Salem, capital $100,000 authorized and $10,200 subscribed by J. W. Lambeth, Thomasville; R. D. Carver, Charlotte, and A. F. Sams Winston-Salem, for moving picture shows and supplies; the Fairmount Light & Power Co., Robeson county, capital $50,000 authorized and $12,000 subscribed by A. L. Jones and others. The British-American Cotton Co., of Raleigh, changes its principal office to Greensboro, the vice president being H. H. McConnell.

Charged with the murder of Festus Warren, in Johnston county, July 27th, Arthur Hodges and Joe Bryant, two white men were brought to the Wake jail here last night for safekeeping. The removal to Raleigh is on account of the unsafe condition of the Johnston county jail. The Johnston commissioners are to make substantial repairs at once and install pipes for running water for sewerage and baths.

The Raleigh city commissioners are planning to begin permanent street improvements very soon now, property owners to be required to bear their third of the cost on either side of the street.

Governor Craig granted a pardon today for George King, Mecklenburg county, from a 17-year sentence for manslaughter imposed in 1903 by Judge T. J. Shaw. The pardon is an a statement from Judge Shaw that he has re-investigated the case and is convinced that King has been sufficiently punished already. Judge Webb, who was at the time the solicitor and prosecuted King, also recommends the pardon.

Because he shot his uncle, Chas. Lovett, to death in a quarrel about a dog, Frank McPherson, of Cumberland county, began a 25-year sentence in the penitentiary today. He claimed that his uncle's dog bit him and he killed the dog. Later he and the uncle quarreled and the latter was shot in the fight that followed. McPherson is a Croatan Indian about 35 years old.

ATKINSON SCHOOL OPENS.

Largest Enrollment Ever Known at Opening—Attractive Programme.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Atkinston, N. C., Sept. 2.—Atkinson High School opened yesterday with an enrollment of 132 students, the largest number that the school has ever begun with. A very attractive programme was arranged. The chief feature was a solo by the music teacher, Miss Alma Dorsett. Prof. Teague and Mr. G. J. Moore both made short talks. Quite a number of patrons attended.

This is Prof. Teague's third year here and patrons and students welcome him back and consider themselves fortunate in getting him as principal. The faculty this year consists of him; Miss Louise Reehin, of High Point, assistant principal; Miss Janie Parham, of Henderson, grammar department; Miss Emma Purvis, of Scotland Neck, intermediate department; Miss Jennie D. Evans, of Yeyettville, primary department; Miss Alma Dorsett, of Silver City, music teacher.

An additional grade has been added to the former ten grades making this school of as high a standard as any in the State, and it is foreseen that an additional building will have to be erected as the present building is crowded to capacity. There are 32 in the school department this year.

VIEWING HEALTH CONDITIONS

United States Public Health Doctors at Fayetteville—Wedding

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Sept. 2.—Dr. Henry R. Carter, who helped eliminate the mosquito from the Canal Zone, and Dr. John C. Rodman, both of the United States Public Health Service, arrived here today. They have been visiting other towns of Eastern Carolina looking into health conditions and advising local authorities as to preventive measures against mosquitoes, malaria and such things. A lecture on malaria may be given here.

Miss Meta Stewart, of Hemp, and Mr. W. E. Kindley, a prominent merchant of Fayetteville, were married in Raleigh Saturday, according to a report here. Miss Stewart has been employed as cashier in Mr. Kindley's department store in this city. Mr. Kindley left here last week to go to New York to buy goods, and it is presumed that the two had an agreement to meet in Raleigh. Miss Stewart is a very attractive young lady and has a number of friends here. Immediately following the ceremony the newly-wedded couple left the Capital City for New York.

BURGAW HAPPENINGS

Large Attendance at School Opening —Confederate Monument Site

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., Sept. 2.—The Burgaw High School opened yesterday for the Fall term with a large attendance. Mr. C. O. Fisher is principal again with Miss Ellis, of Durham, as assistant. The teachers in the other grades are Miss Douglass Hand, Miss Esther Goldston, Miss Mary Lou McCullen and Miss Blanche Paddison. Miss Minnie Coley of Mocksville, will teach vocal and instrumental music.

Ten years ago the school was taught by two teachers in two rooms, for four months. Now six teachers are required, besides a music teacher, and still another one is needed. This has been made possible by a special tax of 30 cents on the $100 and students graduating from the school are admitted to the colleges of the State on certificates.

Gordon Paddison left this morning for Raleigh to enter the A. & M. for the agricultural course.——Mr. W. W. Perry, who formerly was located here but is now in the milling business at Topsail, spent Sunday here.——Dr. Steve Howes, of Dover, was here yesterday on his way from Atkinson, where he had visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Howes.

The Daughters of the Confederacy put the question to the county commissioners Monday, whether they would furnish the money promised if the monument was placed anywhere on the Court House square, to which they replied that the money would not be paid unless the monument was placed in front of the building. As a majority of the Daughters, it appears favor a different site, it is not known what will be the outcome. A good many favor rejection of any aid from the commissioners and the beginning of a new canvass for funds so as to put the monument where they want it.

Mr. J. Ross McNeal has purchased property on Cowan street and proposes to erect a bungalow at once. He has already contracted for sidewalks, sewerage and a 10,000-gallon tank for waterworks. A gasoline engine will be used to furnish power for pumping the water.

The work done in New Hanover county by Mr. J. P. Herring, farm demonstrator, ought to convince the commissioners of Pender county that this work is needed here. The soil is superior to that of New Hanover, the climate is practically the same, and with scientific methods of cultivation, the yield would be greatly increased. There are several instances of crops of 50 to 60 bushels of corn to the acre here, on land that formerly brought about 10 bushels.

NEW KINSTON CHURCHES.

Universalists and Disciples Building Edifices—Tobacco Market.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Sept. 2.—Materials to be used in the construction of the new Universalist church here are being placed on the site at Lenoir and McLewean streets today, and work is expected to be commenced on the edifice, which will be the finest owned by a Universalist congregation in this part of the country, by Friday or Saturday. Another handsome church home in Kinston, that of the Disciples of Christ, is nearing completion. Its cost will be around $40,000.

More than 1,100,000 pounds of tobacco were handled on the Kinston market during the past two weeks, according to figures by officers of the tobacco board of trade, and the total sales here during the present season will probably greatly exceed the first estimates. Ten million pounds was the quality first named by the tobacconists, but with only two weeks gone of the 25 that the market will be in operation it now appears that several millions in excess of those figures will be handled. The opening week or two of the season found many of the planters not fully prepared, and even yet all are not finished curing. The stemmeries and cooperages here are now nearly all in operation, and the end of this week will see the market at its busiest. A graded rise in prices is noticed, and the weed is now bringing materially more, according to grade than it did at the beginning of the season. There is a significance, however, in the fact that the better grades are not selling proportionately high with the lower grades, and the local newspapers are admonishing the farmers to heed this. All tobacco is selling well, but it appears from this circumstances that it would be good policy to hold back the better grades.

Negro pickpockets found three victims at a carnival in the eastern end of the city. William Perry, a farmer, was robbed of a purse while engaged at a gaming concession. It contained $12.50. Will Smith, colored was arrested, but there is doubt that he is the man wanted. Men whose names are not in the possession of the police lost a gold watch and a small sum of money.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 3rd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months; $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line to persons carrying a regular account, or, if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, excursions, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under the same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper, in the discretion of the editors.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and, if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

ALL DRAFTS, checks, express money orders and postal money orders for the paper should be made payable, and all communications should be addressed to,

Why is an alley, anyway, especially the kinds of alleys most cities have?

Do your part and it will induce other people to do theirs. Quit doing each other.

The higher goes the price of beef the greater will be the encouragement of the South to raise cattle and go after some of the country's meat money.

A town is just as good and fine as its people make it. No town makes the people. The people make the town. If it is a live town its men make it so.

The waters of the Pacific and the Atlantic were united in the Panama Canal on Saturday, but it was so entirely expected that some papers run it under a short head.

Colonel Roosevelt boasts that while out West he ate mountain lion. If you see his tummy stick out two years from now, it will be a sign that he has gotten on the outside of the G. O. P. elephant.

In Cuba it seems that comparisons are not only odious but considered positively libelous. It is said President Menocal will sue a Cuban citizen for declaring that "President Merocal aspires to become "the Roosevelt of Cuba."

Why is it there should be a "hot fight," when two politicians are running for office? They waste time telling people why they can't stand for each other, but very few ever come right out and tell exactly what they will stand for if elected.

Some men brag on their wife's cusine because they don't wish to be considered ungrateful. Others do so for the diplomatic purpose of inducing the old lady to always have something good in order to hear her husband handing out his bouquets.

The pot is alleged to have called the kettle black by way of reproach. The pot was as black as the kettle, and the joke finally was on the pot. The pot and kettle politicians of the day remind us that their true color shows up after they are in politics long enough to become exposed to the public gaze.

Kansas always comes forward with the limit. A man in that State wants a divorce because his wife "insists upon acting the part of a setting hen to him and the children." In other words, he resents the idea that she should boss the whole brood and include him as one of the brood.

The antiseptic shoestring is being praised. It would be better if we would scrape our feet on an antiseptic mat before entering the house and walking over rugs and carpets with the same shoes that we wear all day in the streets. The Japanese custom is better. The leave their shoes outside after exchanging them for clean sandals.

The Philadelphia Press (rep) announces that the registration lists show that Progressives are deserting and going back to the Republican party by the thousands. The Progressives were told that they were standing at Armageddon but as they couldn't see anything in it, they have become retrogressive and are falling back on their old base of supplies.

The beautiful Sylvia Pankhurst, militant suffragette, declares she considers it her duty to provoke a fight by her speeches, and that she "never intended to speak in Trafalgar Square without causing a fight." She advises the militants to arm themselves, learn to drill, practice jiu jitsu, and not attend meetings without sticks and prepared to fight. If we had to face women who would undertake to do all that we would resign and let a tiger take our place.

ASHEVILLE STANDS FIRM

Wilmington and Asheville in turn have denied the soft impeachment of the esteemed Charlotte Observer that they were under suspicion about their loyalty in the fight for just freight rates in North Carolina. Wilmington was quick to allay the fears of The Observer, and Asheville seems to have been surprised and peeved at even a hint of her disloyalty. The Observer says about Asheville's position now:

"The effort to cut Asheville apart from the Just Freight Rate Association never got quite as far along as The Observer had been led by a news story to suppose, says The Gazette-News. On the main point: 'The preponderant sentiment in Asheville as we understand it, is with the rate reform movement. It will not and ought not to heed such counsels as The Observer fears. We do not believe this section would submit to leadership which would be false to its interests and the interests of the State.' The Citizen, a little peeved because all Asheville was not found above suspicion, says about the same. We had hoped and believed that the false leadership would speedily succumb to a public challenge, and now we trust that such has been the case."

We fear The Observer lost its usual caution in the cases of Asheville and Wilmington. What, probably, was true in a sense was mistaken for public sentiment. We fancy that there is no leadership so powerful in either Wilmington or Asheville as to affect a public sentiment so overwhelmingly convinced that North Carolina is everlastingly right in making an effort to get justice in the matter of freight rates. The interest of a great State is vitally concerned and the inequality of rates is so great that there could be but one result—a serious handicap on the development of the State.

ALL PEOPLES TIRING OR WAR.

Senor Miguel Calero says "Mexico can settle her own affairs." Probably she can if she were given as long a time as we took to agitate, wrangle, fight and reconstruct after prolonged sectional bitterness. We had war four years, followed by eleven years of reconstruction, kukluxism, red shirtism, bloody shirtism, etc. We settled our own affairs, but we took our time about it.

In this progressive age, however, present day enlightenment calls for short time settlements. Mexico has had about four years of turmoil and revolution and the world is anxious to see it come to an end, even if ambitions have to be sacrificed for peace. It is better to sacrifice ambitions than to sacrifice lives. Civization stands aghast at the slaughter of men and war's imposition of woes upon women and children. Hence, all the world becomes restless over prolonged disturbances and incessant warfare.

This is so because the world is in closer touch than it was a half century ago. The cable, wreless, fast steamships and the ramifications of commerce have brought all continents into closer communication and sympathy. The day tidings of the furthest ends of the world are read at the supper table and the breakfast table in every quarter of the globe. The modern newspaper makes neighbors of all nations, so that at the clicking of the magnetized wires that encircle the earth and the buzzing of the magnitized field of the wirless, we know the problems, the troubles and the disasters of all peoples. Served with them daily through the means of science, progress and enterprise, the oft, repeated tales travel quicker than during the past ages when communication was slow.

Then we must take it that the world is getting tired of strife. Humanity is learning to hate war. Sooner or later advancing cixilization will not tolerate the idea that men should destroy each other by the thousand. Passion must give way to wisdom. Diplomacy and patience must be the arbiter instead of war with its horrors, miseries, woes and unhappiness. Death should be the only reaper of men.

INTRA-COASTAL WATERWAY FORCES MOVING.

The Intra-Coastal Waterway having become a great national project and a certainty, the points on the great inside canal along the Atlantic coast from Maine to Florida are taking practical steps to advance their interests in connection with this great enterprise. A great State meeting is to be held at Wilmington, Delaware, next Wednesday, September 10th, for the purpose of urging the government to purchase the Chesapeake and Delaware canal, the connecting link between Baltimore, Wilmington, Del., Chester Philadelphia and others points on the Delaware water system. The meeting will be attended by delegates from all over Delaware and the entire State is to get behind the movement to urge the government to convert the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal into a ship canal, thus facilitating commerce between Philadelphia, Wilmington, Baltimore, Norfolk and other ports. Referring to the Delaware meeting and another of a more general character to be held September 17th, the Wilmington (Del.) Morning News says:

"The meeting will be addressed by Congressman Moore of Philadelphia and others, and we sincerely trust that it will be largely atended. The Chamber of Commerce should exert all is influence to make this a successful gathering. Wilmington has been foremost in the work of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association and it should not fall down at this time. Quite probably the city will be largely represented at the general meeting to be held at Lorewood Grove on September 17, when representatives of the commercial bodies of Philadelphia and Baltimore will be present, and as a prelude to this gathering there should be an enthusiastic rally of the friends of the ship canal in this city. Let the entire state be stirred up to work for the ship canal, the construction of which would mean so much for Delaware. Not only should rural New Castle be much interested, but Kent and Sussex as well should join with us in this campaign. It is now only a question of time before the government acquires the canal. How long that time will be depends upon the work of the Waterways Association."

Thus we see, Delaware is making the Intra-Coastal Waterway a State affair, while Maryland, Delaware and Pennsylvania are cooperating in a general way in the interest of the inland route. The communities which are going to get their portion of the Intra-Coastal Waterway first are those which unite and go to work in the most effective way.

IS PROGRESSIVISM PETERING?

The Philadelphia Press is rejoicing that the Progressives of that city are falling over themselves to get back into the Republican party which they deserted to follow the star of Roosevelt. "The drift of Republicans in Philadelphia, back to their old and honorable allegiance, is proved beyond all disputing," says The Press. The proof cited is that the figures of party enrollment on the first registration day. Of some 60,000 voters who registered, not over ten per cent appeared to have balked when asked to declare their party affiliations. It is said that sixty-five per cent of those enrolled had themselves listed as Republicans. That, The Press claims, will give a clear majority over the combined vote of the Democratic Washington and Keystone parties, plus the total vote of those who declined to say to what party they belonged.

There is to be an election in Philadelphia in November and the stalwart Republican organ makes bold to declare: "This year the Republican tide is flooding strongly and the voters are eager to return under the party banner." It is pointed out that the proof is furnished in every ward.

With such inroads being made upon his Armageddon hosts, Colonel Roosevelt had better get busy and try to stem the tide. It has been rumored, however, that Roosevelt himself is preparing to run in the Republican primaries for nomination to the Presidency in 1916.

CURRENT COMMENT.

"What is the difference between Sulzer and Tammany?" inquires a contemporary. Why, Tammany is still at large.—Wilmington Star. But the difference is about the question as to who is boss?—Jacksonville Times-Union.

The Wilmington Star suggests that if Mr. Davis didn't hit that man with a bottle, let the man who did hit him own up. If our information is correct, the man did not only own up, but went on the stand and swore that he did it. Nevertheless, Mr. Davis was convicted.—Greensboro News.

In placing Mr. A. W. McLean in charge of the publicity work in North Carolina the Democratic National executive committee selected the best man possible for the important campaign that it proposed to carry on. Mr. McLean will push the work with vigor and intelligence and under his direction this educational campaign will make North Carolina Democracy a more wide-awake, well-informed and keenly-intelligent effective force than ever before.—Lumberton Robesonian.

There is a growing interest in poultry raising in this part of the State. On many farms can be found thorough-bred poultry, which receive careful attention. It has been demonstrated that there is money in poultry, and the wonder is that more attention had not been given to it heretofore. Many ladies are engaging in this business as a pastime, and find both pleasure and profit in it. There is no part of the State where the people are richer than in the Roanoke-Chowan section; and what is better, nearly every one of our citizens is a producer. People here worth from $10,000 to $500,000 do not despise little things and not only work themselves, but esteem the man or woman who works higher than they do the loafers and gossipers.—Roanoke-Chowan Times.

Defence of a recognized and dearly cherished graft always commands the greatest alertness known in the commercial world. There never was a better example of this truth than the conduct of the Virginia cities toward their subject territory. For years their paid experts have watched like hawks for the slightest signs of rate concession to any North Carolina point; they have keenly protected their artificial advantage, insomuch that if any North Carolina dealer got the discrimination shaded, say on a single barrel of salt pork from Chicago, they would enter successful protest at once. We could not suppose that with the whole system of discrimination under fire they would be found elsewhere than first at the back, next at the elbow and finally in front of the opposing railroads.—Charlotte Observer.

FATHER DENNEN AND THE CITY WATER.

To the Editor of the Star:

Just to keep history straight, I wish to call the attention of the public to a communication published in Sunday's issue.

The correspondence I refer to was the exchange of letters between Mr. Rankin, of the State Board of Health, and the local board. Dr. Rankin in declining to act as an arbiter stated that he had consulted a number of the State Board, but the chairman of the County Board in asking the Doctor to reconsider his declination made it read, a member of the State Board. I was in hopes this error would be detected by the author and corrected in Tuesday's issue, but I suppose Mr. Merritt's communication brought up a matter of graver importance.

Could anything be more astounding to a long suffering community than Mr. Merritt's letter to Dr. Nesbitt, giving the analysis of the Cape Fear water? Colon bacilli in 10 c. c. and in 1 c. c. In plain English—10 c. c. means 150 drops of water and 1 c. c. means 15 drops of water. Pollution found in 150 drops of water. Pollution found in 15 drops of water! And the Superintendent of Health with the brazen effrontery that has marked his tenure of office, admits that he was aware on June 2nd the water supply was polluted, but "at no time did the water show sufficient degree of pollution to warrant notification to the public." He knew on June 2nd there were signs of pollution, but this was not for the public. Who was using the water? Was it not the public? Was it not used at soda water fountains and other places to cleanse drinking utensils? Was it not used by many in cleansing teeth on arising? Was it not used in countless ways that would affect the human system? And yet, he concealed this knowledge from the citizens, who were taxed to pay him. [illegible] us the chairman of the [illegible] ealth was likewise cognizant of this pollution.

I do not hesitate to say if such is the case, the chairman of the Board of Health and its superintendent are responsible for the typhoid of July. Why did they not then warn the people of danger? Why did they not advise boiling the water then and save the suffering and heart burning of stricken citizens? I brand such concealment as official dishonesty. And it is because of many such acts that citizens have lost confidence in the health department. Would it not be better to advise the people to boil the water than to sit in an office and stick paper flags on a map to show where preventable diseases existed?

How could the water supply be anything else but polluted? All of Wilmington east of Sixth street, is sewered through Smith's Creek, and this flows over the intake. All west of Sixth street is sewered directly into the Cape Fear, and this by incoming tides, is backed up over the intake. Do the citizens of this community know that for one year the contents of the sanitary cans (and only Dr. Nesbitt and God knows how many) have been weekly dumped about 1,000 feet below the Kidder Mill property? And so polluted has the river become that its waters refuse to wash this filth away, but returns it to the swampy marsh and sand to leave the sun to shine on the abomination, with the result that so foul is the stench arising from the combination, that a buzzard would become sick at the stomach. And the people living in South Wilmington have been treated to this for a year, and citizens have gone before three different grand juries seeking relief and nothing has been done. If the grand juries acted either by presentment or true bill, they have been pigeon holed, and by what influence? "Charity coverth a multitude of sins," but is it charity to see the lives of 30,000 people trafficked in?

FIRE AT SEAGATE.

Reported Blaze Early This Morning, But No Particulars Learned.

A report received this morning about 3 o'clock had it that a big fire was raging at Seagate, but nothing could be learned about it. Efforts to reach the place by 'phone were fruitless, because the Wrightsville exchange could not be aroused. Police headquarters and the central fire station had heard the same news, but could give no particulars.

The Independent Ice Company

Wishes to remind the users of Ice that several years ago, when we were the only manufacturers and distributors of Ice in and around Wilmington that we did not attempt to put up the price, but maintained the same old schedul that had been in force years before, although we had every opportunity to name any list of prices we saw fit. This is a cold-blooded fact, as cold and clear as any ice ever made in Wilmington, and is well worth public consideration, for the average Ice Maker would have without any hesitation put up the price, but that has never been the Independent Ice Company's way of doing business.

Two years, or more, ago, we were largely instrumental, through the medium of The Central Ice Company, of which we were large owners, of having a Special Ice Train put on at 6:00 A. M., to serve the Trolley Line patrons, at city prices.

For these considerations, we are not posing as public benefactors. They were simply good business moves, as we saw them. As for ice by other Beach trains than 6:00 A. M., the prices now in effect are the same that have prevailed for years past.

We wish to further remind the public of the superior services, and the full weight deliveries they have this season, the lack of which conditions caused such widespread complaints the past two years, when we were not directly engaged in the city delivery of ice.

That our ice and our services are appreciated is attested by the fact that our sales are 25 % or more greater this Summer than ever before.

AGAINST SENATE AMENDMENT

Chamber of Commerce Adopts Resolution Opposing Proposal of Senator Sutherland to Tax Bonded Imports

A resolution protesting against the enactment of the proposed Sutherland amendment to the pending tariff bill was adopted at a called meeting of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, and it was ordered sent by wire to Senator Simmons and Overman, with request that they "use their utmost endeavors to defeat the amendment."

The amendment proposes that existing duties shall be paid on all imports now held in bonded warehouses, after the new tariff goes into effect. It is estimated that $70,000,000 worth of merchandise is now in bonded warehouses and that the revenue on it, under old rates, would amount to $10,000,000.

The resolution of the Chamber of Commerce is as follows:

"We beg to call your attention to the Sutherland amendment now before the Senate which provides that goods withdrawn from bonded warehouses, after passage of the new tariff, shall pay duty at the old rates, thus violating all precedents since foundation of the government. An attempt by the government to make some merchants pay duties to their competitors seems so unprecedented, unjust and unreasonable that it seems hardly possible that our Congress can think seriously of enacting such a law. Bonding facilities are normally availed of by industries of the country and to abridge this privilege would seriously interfere with the current of the trade. The facts disclose that the amount of goods now in bond is but slightly in excess of the average, clearly demonstrating the absence of a purpose on the part of the importers to use the government unfairly. We wish to enter our protest against its passage and beg that you use your utmost endeavors to defeat the amendment."

Advocating the resolution and explaining the proposed amendment, Mr. J. Allan Taylor stated that the practice of placing imports in bonded warehouses promoted business in that an importer of small means, as compared with large interests, could release his goods as orders instead of paying the whole at one time. The amount of goods in bond at any given time he said was around $65,000,000 to $70,000,000, hence the value of the bonded stuff now is not unduly large, and demonstrates that there is no effort on the part of the importer to defraud the government. The effect of the amendment would be, he said, either that the consumer would have to finally pay the duty on the bonded goods now held, or that a delay would ensue which would cripple business and imperil crops, as in the case of burlaps, needed now to handle the cotton crop and a little later for the distribution of fertilizers. It was, furthermore, manifestly unfair he said, to force some importers to pay the old rate under a new tariff that offered competitors a reduced rate or no rate at all. Burlap is now taxed 15 per cent. Under the new tariff it would be admitted free.

WEATHER IN AUGUST.

Nearly Half the Prescription for Month Was Last Friday Night.

The weather report for August shows that the mean temperature for the month was a bit under normal, the normal being 77.6, and the month's mean record being even 77. The hottest day was August 1st, when the thermometer registered 92 degrees; and the coolest was the 17th, when the mercury showed 64 degrees.

The greatest precipitation was last Friday night, or more accurately, Saturday morning, the guage showing 2.06 inches. This was nearly half of the rainfall for the entire month, the record being 5.47 inches. There were 12 clear days, 14 party cloudy and five cloudy; and rain fell on 12 days, but there was a deficiency of 1.04 inches during the month, making a total accumulated deficiency for the year of date of 3.88 inches. Looking over the record since 1871, it is found that the greatest precipitation in August was in 1913 when 14.35 inches of rain fell. August 1911 is second with 13.85 inches, the normal is 6.51.

The prevailing direction of the wind was southwest, average hourly velocity six miles, and the maximum for five minutes 27 miles on the 7th, from the west. There was but one fog which, according to mountain lore, means one frost next Spring. There were 13 thunder storms.

ABSTRACT OF PROPOSALS.

U. S. Engineer Office Opens Bids for Several River Improvements.

Bids for the dredging of the Scuppernong, Neuse, New and Shallotte river and Beaufort and Morehead City harbors were opened Saturday by the U. S. Engineer office, Maj. H. W. Stickle in charge. The bids together with recommendations have been forwarded to the War Department at Washington, and as soon as they are passed upon, the contracts will be awarded.

For the dredging of the Scuppernong river there were only two bids received these being those of the Hillsboro Dredging Co., Tampa, Fla., which bid 26 cents per cubic yard, and the Norfolk Dredging Co., Norfolk, Va., at 29 cents. The bid of the Hillsboro Co., for dredging the Neuse river was 14 cents, and the bid of the Norfolk Co., 25 cents. For the dredging of the waterway from Pamlico Sound to Beaufort Inlet the following bids were received: Hillsboro Dredging Co., 19 1-2 cents; Arthur P. Midyett, Oriental, N. C.; 9 9-10 cents; W. H. French, Norfolk, Va., 22 1-2 cents. All these bids were for cubic yards.

For dredging Beaufort harbor the Hillsboro Co. bid 11 1-2 cents and W. H. French 23 1-4 cents per cubic yard. For dredging Morehead City hrbor the Hillsboro Co. bid 23 3-4 cents and W. H. French, 30 cents. The only bid received for the dredging of New river was received from the Hillsbiri Co. which was 29 cents. The only bid for dradging the Shallotte river was by the same company, and was 22 3-4 cents.

Charged With Larceny.

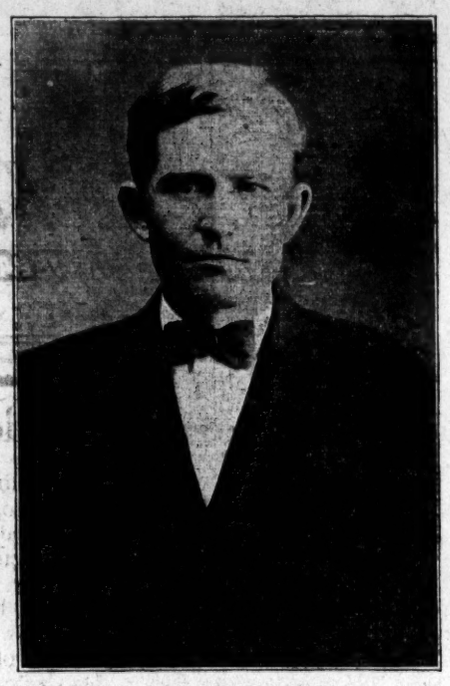
Walter Murry and Abel King, both colored, were arrested yesterday by Officer J. J. Moore on a warrant issued by Mr. G. T. Flynn, charging Adel King with the larceny of a package of silverware, and Walter Murray with having received stolen property. The spoons were stolen last February while Mr. and Mrs. Flynn were away from home, and the King woman was in charge as housekeeper. According to her statement the Murray negro came to the house to deliver some groceries, and seeing the spoons carried them away.

LOCAL BANKERS ELEVATED

Mr. Hhos. E. Cooper Elected Vice President of The American National and Mr. Chas. E. Bethea Named Cashier.

At the regular monthly meeting yesterady of the directors of The American National Bank, Mr. Thos. E. Cooper, who has been cashier ever since the institution was organized and opened for business in 1903, was elevated to the office of vice president, and Mr. Chas. E. Bethea, who has been assistant cashier, was chosen cashier to succeed Mr. Cooper. The change is effective immediately.

The American National Bank is one of Wilmington's leading financial institutions and its growth has been rapid. The constantly increasing business of the institution made it necessary to increase the official family. Then, too, Mr. W. B. Cooper, the president of the institution, has many other larger interests which require much of his time and upon the election of Mr. Thos. E. Cooper as active vice president he will be relieved of a large portion of the work that formerly devolved upon him. The new vice president is recognized as one of the State's leading young bankers. He is vice president of the North Carolina Bankers' Association, president of the Bank of Southport, and president of The Citizens' Bank, Mount Olive. As cashier of The American National Bank he has been a most valuable official and his enlarged duties put him a postition to be of still greater service to the institution.



MR. CHAS. E. BETHEA
Who was yesterday elected Cashier American National Bank.

In the selection of Mr. Chas. E. Bethea as successor to Mr. Cooper the directors choose well, for he is regarded as one of the most able young bankers in this section, progressive yet conservative, and possessing all the necessary qualifications that go to make a successful banker. His friends have long predicted for him, a bright career in the banking business and his rapid rise from one position to another is evidence of the fact that their expectations will be realized.

Mr. Bethea is a native of Latta, S. C., but came to this city from Spartanburg, where he was graduated from the Wofford College, in 1909, and has been connected with The American National Bank ever since. He and his family live at Carolina Place. He has made many friends since he came to Wilmington and they will be interested and pleased to learn of his deserved promotion in the banking world.

MR. SAMUEL L. SMITH PASSES

Well Known Wilmington Citizen Died at Home Last Night After Long Illness—Had Lived Here Many Years.

Many friends in this city will be deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mr. Samuel L. Smith which occurred at his home, No. 709 North Fifth street, last night at 7:10 o'clock. Death came without a struggle and as a peaceful end to a long and useful life. All the members of his family except one son and one sister were at his bedside when he passed away. The funeral arrangements will be announced later.

He had been quite a sufferer for a long time, but it was only a few days ago that his loved ones gave up hope for his ultimate recovery. Monday he grew suddenly worse, and steadily declined until the end came. The entire community extend their tender sympathy to the bereaved family.

Surviving him besides his wife are one brother, Mr. W. R. Smith, of this city; one sister, Mrs. Julia A. Collins, of New Decatur, Ala., and three sons, Mr. L. O. Smith, of Wilmington, Mr. P. L. Smith, of Roanoke, Va., and Mr. Marsden Smith, of Marion, S. C., and one daughter, Mrs. C. S. Britt, of Wilmington.

Mr. Smith was born at Scottsville, Wayne county, 57 years ago, and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Riley Smith. When he was 21 years of age he married Miss Mary Vashti Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Spencer. He had been living in Wilmington for 38 years.

He engaged in the tinning business and established the firm of S. L. Smith, which was afterwards changed to S. L. Smith & Son. On account of ill health he retired from active participation in the business about seven years ago. He was a public spirited citizen and well known and esteemed by a large number of Wilmington's best citizens.

He was a charter member of Brooklyn Baptist church, and was prominently connected with the work of the church since it was established. When the church was organized he was made a trustee, and held this office until his death.

On account of missing train connections Mrs. Julia A. Collins, of New Decatur, Ala., and one son, Mr. P. L. Smith, of Roanoke, Va., were prevented from arriving before his death. As soon as they arrive the funeral arrangements will be made. All the other members of the family were at his bedside when he passed away, including Mrs. P. L. Smith, of Roanoke; Mrs. M. S. Smith, of Marion, S. C., and Mrs. L. O. Smith, of the county.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS TODAY

Some Phase of Controversy Reference to Walter Supply May be Taken Up—Report Made on Scavenging Equipment.

When the City Council meets in regular weekly session this morning it is likely that some phase of the controversy with reference to the Wilmington public water supply will be taken up. Council may not be able to do onything in the matter other than to give the public the benefit of the position of the individual members, but the question is most likely to come up, nevertheless.

The charge has been by Dr. Nesbitt, superintendent of health, that the fault is with the Council and the Water and Sewerage Deparment for failure to carry out the recommendations of the Board of Health as made to the Council three months ago. The Councilmen may want to have a word to say in reply.

Mr. Jas. E. Holton, of the street department, who has been assigned by Councilman B. A. Merrit, in charge of the Streets and Wharves Department, to have supervision of the scavenging and carrion and slop removal, yesterday filed with Capt. Thos. D. Meares, city clerk and treasurer, an inventory of the equipment turned over to the city by the health department and also some comments on the condition of the disposal basin in the southern part of the city. Mr. Holton's communication follows:

"Received of the Board of Health: six mules; six horses; nine wagons, two in bad condition; six carts, two can be used, four out of service; five short handle shovels; one long handle shovel; two pitch forks; nine feet trace chain; 18 stalls; one feed room; about 125 sanitary cans, more or less; about 1,000 sanitary lids, more or less; five slop baskets; about 150 stopper lids for sanitary cans; four canvas covers for wagons; two iron water tanks; one force pump; 50 feet hose and one barrel lime.

"Found cans and lid in bad condition by being bent up. Wagons all need lining and repirs.

"Nearly every horse with sore backs or shoulders and in need of attention and shoeing.

"What little harness there is is of no use as the condition of same is the cause of horses having sore shoulders, etc.

"Sewer running from basin where refuse is supposed to be placed has been broken and not in use for four or five weeks. All refuse is carried and dumped on river bank. If tide is low when dumped it is carried up the river on the rising tide. If high tide it still remains on shore.

"I make this statement as to conditions in justice to myself."

It will be recalled that in the communication sent by Mr. W. E. Merritt, superintendent of the Water and Sewerage Department, to Dr. Nesbitt, on Monday, set forth the fact that the State chemist had found that a sample of the water analyzed by him on August 27th showed the presence of colon bacilli, indicating pollution by sewage. The fact that colon bacilli has been found in the water does not necessarily mean that there are typhoid germs in the water, as some suppose.

FISHING ON PIER

Anglers May Now Have Pleasure of Fishing from Seashore Hotel

Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, manager of the Seashore Hotel, which closed Monday for the season, announces that the pier is now open for fishing. The lights on the pier will be kept burning at night in order to allow those who like to fish in the evening to do so. The best time of the year for fishing is during the month of September and it is expected that there will be many to enjoy the angling sport at the beach this year. Ever since the pier was built it has been a favorite place with the anglers in the Fall. Mr. Steve Brock will again be in charge.

Death of Little Daughter.

Virginia, the 16-month's old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Atkinson, of Lake City, S. C., died yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at the Northrop Cottage at Wrightsville Beach, where Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson have been guests for the last ten days. The little one had been sick for the last two months, and it was with hopes that it might recover that the parents came to the beach. The body, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, will be taken to their former home at Wahesboro on the 5 o'colck train this morning. The funeral and interment will take place there today.

SEVERAL WHISKEY CASES

Recorder Sends Three Men to Roads For Selling Whiskey—Another Gets Jail Sentence— Automobile Cases Dismissed.

The Recorder had a busy session yesterday trying "blind tiger" cases and numerous others that had accumulated since Saturday. Sam Huffman and A. F. Holaman, white, and Calvin Holmes, colored, were each given three months on the roads for selling whiskey. John Farrow, white, for a like offense was sentenced to serve three months in jail with the privilege to the Commissioners to hire out. Several automobilists were before the Recorder, charged with exceeding the speed limit. These were dismissed on the ground of insufficient evidence to convict.

The cases against the alleged "blind tigers" were worked up by Planinclothes Officers B. W. Jacobs and Frank George with the aid and assistance of one W. B. Roberts, of Brunswick county. Calvin Holmes, colored, fell into the net by selling to Roberts a half pint of liquor for 40 cents according to the evidence. Sam Hoffman also sold a pint to the same man for 85 cents and A. F. Holaman sold a pint for 75 cents. Hoffman and Holaman entered a submission to the charge made against them of violating the phohibition law. All three were given a term of three months each on the roads.

John Farrow, who lives at Point Peter, some times known as "Misery Hill," across the river, sold a half pint to Roberts for 40 cents. When Officers B. W. Jacobs, Frank George, H. G. Bullard and James Smith appeared on the scene to make a search of the place and arrest Farrow he ordered them off the premises at the point of a gun.

The officers made the trip in a boat and returned without their man. Later in the night, or rather early yesterday morning, Patrolmen Chas. E. Wood, H. G. Bullard and Fulford made a detour by the Hilton bridge and came to the man's house on the old C. F. & Y. V. tracks. Farrow was still on guard at his premises, walking up and down in front of his house with his gun across his shoulder. The officers approached from behind and were upon him before he knew what was happening. He was arrested and brought to the city.

Two charges were made against Farrow, one for resisting officers and the other for violating the prohibition law. The first named case was dismissed on the ground that the officers had not informed him that they were armed with a warrant, and that he therefore had a right to protect his premises against intruders, when he did not know that they were officers of the law.

When his place was searched seven quarts of whiskey were found, and also a number of bottles and jugs. By reason of the the fact that Farrow is an aged man, being about 65 years old, the Recorder said that he would not send him to the roads but would give him a jail sentence instead.

Judgment was suspended upon the payment of the costs in the case of James Daniels, colored, charged with assaulting his wife with a stick. Archie Garrison, colored, charged with resisting an officer, was found not guilty, but was fined $10 and the costs for being drunk and disorderly. A nol pros with leave was taken in the case of Will Dudley, colored, charged with stealing a pair of trousers.

Robert Thomas and Joe Pigford, both colored, were given three months each for assaulting Elic Heigh, also colored, with a deadly weapon. These two negro boys on Saturday afternoon jumped on the Heigh boy and beat him up badly with pallings and sticks. According to the evidence they took the beating by turns, and did not stop until Office Hall placed them under arrest.

Judgment was suspended in the case of Clyde Padgett, Ernest Smith, John Taylor, Frank Gordon, Washington Borneman, Louis Riley and Arthur Smith, charged with bathing in the Cape Fear river at the foot of Walnut street Sunday afternoon. They were admonished not to repeat the offense.

The cases against Percy Forbes, T. W. Callahan and J. P. Herring, charged with exceeding the speed limit, were dismissed. Dr. J. G. Murphy and J. J. Hopkins, charged with similar offenses, were found not guilty. The only evidence against the alleged offenders was that of officers riding behind the machines on a motorcycle. The number of the machines were taken, but the occupants were unknown. It was the opinion of the Recorder that the identity of the occupants of the cars should be established, and that the fact that a certain car may have exceeded the speed limit was not sufficient evidence to convict the owner of violating the law.

James Toomer and George Sampson, two young boys, were before the Recorder, charged with taking two bicycles which had been left in front of the Bijou theatre. One of the wheels had been broken up, and the other was returned to the owner. Judgment was left open with the understanding that if the boys could raise $20 to pay for the broken bicycle, and also enough to pay the costs of the action that they would be given their freedom.

One of the questions with which the Recorder is frequently confromted in the discharge of his official duties is what disposition to make of young offenders. The need of a reformatory is made apparent nearly every day. Young boys are constantly being arrested for committing misdemeanors which ought to be punished, and yet it would be little short of cruelty to send them to the county roads.

There were only three or four drunken offenders in court yesterday, and these were let off with the payment of fines and the costs.

Solicitor Peschau was in court for the first time yesterday for two weeks, having just returned from his vacation which he spent with relatives in Marietta, Ga. He prosecuted with all his old time vigor, and was in fine fettle for the fray. During his absence Louis J. Poisson, Esq., acted as solicitor, and he filled the position in a most acceptable manner.

POSTOFFICE RECEIPTS

An Increase of $3,436.97 Over Same Month Last Year

Postmaster Green's report for August shows that the receipts for the Wilmington office for the past month were $11,790.15, a net increase over the same month last year of $3,436.97. The receipts for August last year were $8,353.18. The receipts for July of this year were $10 071.29, and the net increase of August over this month was $1,718.86. While much of this increase in business has been due to the growth of the parcel post business there has also been a healthy increase of business in all departments of the office.

THE WILMINGTON SAVINGS AND TRUST COMPANY

MR. JAMES H. CHADBOURN DEAD

Beloved Wilmington Citizen Passes Away in Asheville, N. C.—Funeral Here Probably Thursday—His Career

This community was profoundly shocked early yesterday evening when long distance telephone messages from Asheville, N. C., announced the death of Mr. James H. Chadbourn, one of Wilmington's most prominent and beloved citizens, who passed away at 5:30 o'clock at the recently established home of the family in that city.

Mr. Chadbourn had been in rapidly declining health for more than a year and some months ago went to Asheville with the hope that the climate there would be of benefit to him. He had there the most pleasant environment and the care of the best physicians and the most renowned specialists, friends having cherished the hope that in a few years at most he would be able to return to his home here and again actively take up his business affairs where he had left them because of his health a few months ago. While it was known that his condition gave little hope to loved ones, no one was prepared for the announcement of his death which came as a shock to hundreds and hundreds of friends and relatives here. All members of the immediate family were with him when the end came and will accompany the body to Wilmington, reaching here this midnight. Arrangements are being made for the funeral, which will probably be held at 11 o'clock Thursday morning from the First Presbyterian church. The body will be taken upon arrival here to the residence of Mr. J. O. Carr, in Carolina Heights, until the hour for the funeral which will be definitely announced later.

Mr. James H. Chadbourn for many years was one of Wilmington's leading business men. He was born in Wilmington August 23rd, 1853, and had, therefore, just passed the 60th milestone of a long and useful life. He early entered into the business of life of the community and for years the Chadbourn Lumber Company, with which he was prominently identified, was one of the leading manufacturing enterprises in Wilmington. On October 25th, 1876, he married Miss Blanche H. King, a daughter of Dr. J. Francis King, in his day one of Wilmington's most celebrated physicians and a gentleman of great culture. To this union were born seven children only one of whom, Mrs. J. W. Stanly, wife of Dr. J. W. Stanly, survives with the grief-stricken widow. Both, with five grand children, have the tenderest sympathy of a host of friends in their sorrow. Dr. and Mrs. Stanly have made their home in Asheville since the removal of the family there for Mr. Chadbourn's health several months ago.

One of the singularly large achievements of Mr. Chadbourn's business career was the building and financing of what is now commonly known as the "Chadbourn and Conway Branch" of the Atlantic Coast Line in which work he was associated with his brother, the late Mr. William H. Chadbourn, who passed away only a short time ago. In Wilmington he was identified with many of the city's largest and most successful business enterprises. A large holder of Atlantic Coast Line stock, he always took an active, enthusiastic interest in that great railroad system. He was a director of both the Murchison National Bank and the Wilmington Savings & Trust Co., while he was also largely interested in the building and loan associations of the city. He had also for many years been a director of the Oakdale Cemetery Co., and was treasurer of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund of the Cape Fear Pilots' Association. His greatest work of a public nature was perhaps as chairman of School Committee No. 2, which had much to do with the building up of the present splendid public school system of the city. This was the work nearest his heart and he took personal interest in each and every detail of the schools. He was a prominent Mason and with his brother, the late Mr. William Chadbourn, did much for the permanent establishment of the craft in Wilmington.

Mr. Chadbourn's home life was beautiful and he was ever tenderly devoted to his family and to his friends. A man of the strongest Christian character, he had for years been an elder of the First Presbyterian church and gave liberally of his means and his time toward the advancement of the cause of the Master. No department of church work but challenged and received his most loyal support.

For several terms he had served the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce as its president and later on the executive board. His administration of the affairs of the Chamber was at all times vigorous and he was a consistent and devoted worker for the upbuilding of Wilmington, the city which he loved so well. He was also and was at the time of his death president of the North Carolina Waterways Association, founded in this city and an always active aggressive factor in the river and harbor improvement of the State. He frequently went to Washington in the interest of river and harbor improvement for Wilmington and his efforts were always intelligent and productive of results. Much of Wilmington's present supremacy as a port is due in large measure to Mr. Chadbourn.

In the death of Mr. Chadbourn the city has lost one of its most valued and highly esteemed citizens.

The following special telegram was received by The Star last night from Asheville:

Asheville, N. C., Sept. 2.—After a lingering illness at his handsome home "Witchwood," which he purchased in February, Mr. J. H. Chadbourn, formerly of Wilmington and a resident of this city since February, died this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. The death of Mr. Chadbourn was not unexpected, relatives having realized several days ago that his condition was such that he could not recover. The body will be taken to Wilmington tomorrow morning for burial and the funeral services will be conducted at that city Thursday by Rev. J. M. Wells, the pastor of the First Presbyterian church, of Wilmington.

For more than 20 years Mr. Chadbourn was an officer in that church. Mr. Chadbourn was 60 years of age and was a member of one of the pioneer families of this State, having been the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Chadbourn, of Wilmington. For many years he was prominent in banking and lumber circles of Wilmington and retired from active business a few years ago on account of his health.

He was a member of the First Presbyterian church, of this city and was prominent in Masonic circles. The deceased is survived by a wife and one daughter, Mrs. J. W. Stanly, who were at his bedside at the time of his death.

LAST RACE OF SEASON.

Open Regatta at Wrightsville Beach Monday Morning—Result.

Official results of the last regatta of the season of the Carolina Yacht Club, sailed Monday morning in Banks Channel, Wrightsville Beach, were announced yesterday by the regatta committee, after hearing the contentions of both sides on a protest. The following is the time as announced by the committee:

First Dixie, Capt. Donald McR. Parsley, time 1:38:52.

Second, Puzzle, Capt. E. A. Metts, time, 1:41:18.

Third, Pirate, Capt. R. G. Rankin, time, 1:42:02.

Fourth, Alice, Capt. Wm. Parsley, time, 1:44:16.

Fifth, Willet, Ctpt. J. S. Brown, time 1:48:02.

There was a strong breeze from the northwest and the race was finished in less than the time required. A large number of people witnessed the race, which proved of great interest. This was the final race of the season.

The trophies won in the series of races for the Class A boats will be formally awarded at a club frolic to be held at the club house about the 18th of this month, the exact date and the programme to be announced later.

Was Engaged to be Married.

From the Newbern Journal of yesterday it is learned that Mr. Paul A. Grantham, the young brakeman who was killed at Mullins, S. C., early Sunday morning by falling between the cars of the moving train, was engaged to the married to Miss Ruth Privett, of No. 217 North Second street, this city. Miss Privett was in the party accompanying the body from Wilmington to Newbern, where the interment took place Monday. Mr. Grantham's mother, Mrs. G. K. Grantham, lives in Newbern.

MR. F. H. KRANKE, JR. WINS BRIDE IN GEORGIA

Sunday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock Mr. F. H. Krahnke, Jr., of this city, and Miss Inez Bishop, of Dalton, Ga., were united in marriage at Elnwood, the beautiful home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Bishop. It was a quiet wedding and there were only a few invited friends and relatives present. The bride and groom left on the night train for Wilmington, arriving here Monday night. This was the first intimation that Mr. Krahnke's many friends here had of the marriage as he had made no announcement that the happy event was to take place so soon. He left the city Friday afternoon ostensibly to make a visit to the Georgia city, where he formerly lived. His bride is a young lady of many charming traits of character. Mr. Krahnke is manager of the U. S. Woollen Mills Company's branch store in this city, and has a large circle of friends who will extend to him warmest congratulations in winning the heart and hand of one of Georgia's fair daughters.

Y. M. C. A. DIRECTORS MEET

Adopt Rates for Membership in the Association — New Building Ready in Short Time Now Mr. Roberts Arrives

The regular meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. was held in the temporary offices in the Odd Fellows' building last night. Matters pertaining to the work soon to be started in the new building, which is rapidly nearing completion, were taken up and reports from the rooms and membership committees were adopted.

The rooms committee reported the application blanks in the hands of the men who want rooms in the building and that a large number had already signed up. These apartments will meet the needs of the young men of the city in splendid shape. Everything possible will be done to make the rooms home-like and the influences surrounding the members who room in the building will be the best.

The report of the membership committee which was adopted showed that the committee had given much time and thought to the membership in the new building. The rates that were suggested follow:

"Full membership (senior)—Admitting to all the privileges of the various departments, including gymnasium, shower baths, swimming pool, physical and medical examinations, renting of apartments, etc. Towels and lockers rented at small cost at the office. Fee payable annually in advance, $10. Lockers, $1.00. Towels 10 for 15 cents.

"Sustaining Membership — Admitting to all privileges of full membership and in addition the use of the Business Men's Locker Room. A membership intended especially for men who desire to cover cost of privileges offered and wish to assist in supporting the association's extensive work. Fee, $20.

"Social Membership—Admitting to privileges to reading room and educational department (tuition fees additional) and all social privileges. Bible classes, etc. Fee payable in advance, $5.

"Junior—Grammar school boys, 12 to 15 years, inclusive. Full privileges of the boys' department—Gymnasium, showers and swimming pool at stated times. Game and reading room until 6 P. M. Fee payable in advance, $5. Locker rent 50 cents a year.

"Intermediate—High school and employed boys, 15 to 18 years. Full privilege of the department. Gymnasium classes, showers and swimming pool at stated times. Game and reading room open until 9:30 P. M. Fee in advance, $7. Locker rent 50 cents a year.

"Special and short term memberships will be arranged for by department committee."

At the close of this meeting the committee appointed to arrange for the opening of the new plant met to discuss plans for the opening. The date of the opening and definite plans were left in the hands of the committee. It is expected that there will be some prominent layman as speaker for the occasion, a banquet for the workers who took part in the campaign and one or more open nights for inspection of the building by the subscribers and general public.

Mr. Edward Roberts, who has been selected as boys' secretary, arrived yesterday from Terra Alta, West Virginia, where he spent the Summer in charge of the religious and social work of the Y. M. C. A. Summer school located there. Mr. Roberts comes splendidly equipped for the work he is to have charge of in this city.

Mr. J. T. Seitter of Wheeling, West Virginia, who will be physical director, is expected to arrive about the 10th of the month. General Secretary J. B. Huntington considers the association very fortunate in being able to secure the services of these young men.

HEARING CONTINUED.

Alleged Jewelry Thieves Were Not Given Trial Yesterday.

The trial of Mattie Taylor and Alfonso Robinson, colored, charged with larceny of about $400 worth of jewelry from the apartments of Mrs. Maggie Joseph, No. 115 1-2 South Front street, Saturday afternoon, was not reached in the Recorder's court yesterday morning, having been postponed until Thursday.

Mattie Taylor has been working for Mrs. Joseph, whose husband conducts a store a few doors from their living apartments. Saturday night, after looking up everything, Mattie took the key to the store as usual and gave it to Mrs. Joseph, who paid her the amount due her for the week's work. Mattie told her that she left everything in good order. Going to the apartments a short time later Mrs. Joseph was amazed to find everything in the room turned topsy furvey. Her trunk, where she kept her jewelry, had been opened, and her valuables were gone. The doors to the apartment were locked and the window were fastened. Suspicion the once pointed to the Taylor woman, who was the only person known to have a key to the apartment. It was remembered by Mrs. Joseph that she had seen the Taylor woman talking with Alfonso Robinson several times during the afternoon.

Report of the theft was made to the police and early Sunday morning Hattie Taylor and Robinson were arrested. Search was made of Robinson's house in the hope that some of the stolen property could be found, but the searchers got no trace of it.

After stoutly denying all day Sunday any knowledge of the theft the negress Sunday night "opened up" and told the officers that Robinson got the jewelry but that she did not have any part in the affair and did not know where the property could be found. She told the officers that the reason she did not tell on Robinson at first was because she was afraid of him. Robinson is a bad negro, say the police.

MR. E. FRED BANCK

LOCAL DOTS.

—Willie Allen, colored, was arrested yesterday afternoon by the police charged with the larceny of a pass book belonging to the Tidewater Power Company.

—The regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of the Wilmington Public Library was held yesterday. The report of the secretary showed that during the month of August there was a circulation of 1,846 books, 26 new members enrolled, and the average number of visitors daily, 125.

—The trial of Mr. J. B. Farmer, charged with violating the State automobile law by dealing in automobiles without paying a license fee, which was to have been held before Justice Harriss yesterday, was postponed on account of the absence of K. C. Sidbury, Esq., attorney for Mr. Farmer. The hearing is set now for Friday.

BUILDING PERMITS.

Improvements and Additions to Masonic Temple—New Residences.

A building permit has been issued for the general improvement and repair of the Masonic Temple on Front street, the estimated cost being $2,500. The entire lower floor will be remodeled, and the partitions removed from the section formerly occupied by J. M. Solky & Co., and the present rooms, now occupied by the Kress department store. This will be made into one large room which will be used by the Kress store. It is expected to have the improvements completed by December.

Other permits have been issued as follows: R. L. Johnson, one story, four room residence, corner Ninth and Meares streets, the estimated cost being $400. John Gafford, five room residence on Castle street between 13th and 14 streets, the estimated cost being $800.

DIED

The funeral arrangements will be made later. (Advertisement.)

..Theatrical..

The Academy of Music is all spick and span for a big opening of the 1913-14 season Friday night, when the beautiful dramatic success, "Quincy Adams Sawyer" which was presented with such signal success in Wilmington several seasons ago, will be offered. It will make a superb inauguration, especially as the revival this season is a sumptuous one, both as to cast and production. It is really a giant scenic production, with a New York cast. Due to the early opening of the season and in order to have a rousing opening a special scale of prices has been made, whereby the highest price for reserved seats, outside of boxes, of course, will be $1. This is a big concession and should be appreciated by the theatre-goers of Wilmington. Seats for this attraction will go on sale at Plummer's tomorrow morning.

It seems odd to characterize a rural drama as thoroughly wholesome, for that is supposed to be one of their strong points. Yet when one stops to think of it, most of them have some disagreeable story of a wronged girl who is wandering around in the snow on a Wintry night looking for her wedding certificate. But in "Quincy Adams Sawyer," reports of which, from New York, where it ran recently for many weeks at the Academy of Music, seems to indicate that it is the latest and best of rural dramas there is no such story or character. Critics everywhere have sung its praises as the purest, sweetest, and most wholesome of rural dramas. There is more comedy in it than other plays of its class. In fact, it is built largely on comedy lines. So much so that one writer described it as "one great big laugh from beginning to end." The serious part of it is the story of a blind girl. No small amount of credit for the heartfelt sympathy that goes out to the blind girl, Alice Pettengill, in her deep affliction, is said to be due to the true and careful portrayal of the part. Alice is a reality, not a stage creation set up to be analyzed for its dramatic strength or weakness.

At The Grand

The Grand enjoyed another big day yesterday and which meant, quite naturally, that Grandites enjoyed a big day. The two go hand in hand. Today this cozy, handsome theatre has another feast of good things that will appeal to each and every amusement-lover. Today's bill is strong alike for comedy and the dramatic, while there will be plenty of new music, so as to give a complete new show and one that every one is just bound to like. Among today's film successes at The Grand will be four of the best and up-to-date pictures ever put upon the screen. Don't miss to day's show and see a big show for the tiny price of 5 cents.

The Bijou's Bill

Truly do big and bright bills tumble over each other in their apparent eagerness to find presentation at the popular Bijou in order to delight the hundreds who gather at this favorite amusement house. Today's bill is going to be one of superb nature, headed by Lubin's biggest dramatic success "His Better Self," in which a quartette of well known, clever artists will play the stellar roles, besides splendid artists appearing in the other parts. This quartette will be composed of Misses Lottie Briccoe and Florence Hackett and Messrs Arthur Johnson and Earle Ryder. It is a society drama, with a big lesson. Among the other film triumphs is the superb Edison, "The Pied Piper of Hamlin," which is a fascinating, charming and novel tale of old familiar piper and it is something beautiful, as well as elaborate in the way of a production

LABOR DAY CANOE PARADE.

Took Place in The Sound at Wrightsville Beach Monday Night.

A very interesting feature of the celebration at Wrightsville Beach Labor Day was the illuminated canoe parade given Monday night in the sound opposite Lumina. It was the first event of the kind ever held at the beach, and attractive large crowds.

There were only four canoes in the parade, but they were very attractively decorated and brilliantly illuminated, making a pretty sight as they were towed up and down the sound by Mr. A. B. Skelding's handsome launch. The canoe to win the first prize was decorated by Miss Marie Grainger and Mr. W. M. Parsley and was manned by Walker Taylor, Jr., and Miss Nannie Parsley. The second prize winner was decorated by the Electrical Union and was manned by Mr. G. T. Williamson and Mr. D. H. Burnett. The canoe to win third prize was decorated by the Carpenter's Union and manned by Mr. T. R. Brown. Mr. LeRoy Polvogt manned the canoe that won fourth prize.

The judges were Messrs. P. R. Albright, Ancrum Lord and Luther B. Jones. All the canoes were prettily decorated and brilliantly illuminated, but the canoe decorated by the Electrical Union was especially commented upon on account of the expensive and elaborate electrical effects.

No "Floaters" in 1700.

In parts of New England during the seventeenth century voters had to reside in a "stone house of the dimensions of 20 by 16 feet, with one or more brick chimney or chimneys." Each voter had also to be certified by his neighbors "of sober and peaceful conversation."

SEASON AT CAROLINA BEACH

Steamer Wilmington Takes Her Winter Schedule—Capt. Harper's Remarkably Fine Record in Transportation.

Yesterday marked the close of the Summer season at Carolina Beach, so far as transportation to that splendid resort on the Summer schedule of the steamer Wilmington is concerned, and Capt. John W. Harper will today place the Harper lines on the regular Winter schedule to the resort and to Southport and Fort Caswell.

It is a pleasure to know that the season just ended has been the greatest and most successful in the history of Carolina Beach. Capt. Harper has handled in the neighborhood of 60,000 passengers during the months of the Summer season—that is, 60,000 each way—and it is high testimony to his ability that all these people have been handled without the semblance of an accident—not even a scratched finger, as some one expressed it.

It is also pleasant to know that Capt. Harper's efforts to serve the interests of the people in connection with the Harper lines has been rewarded with an increased patronage, the business in freight and passengers showing about 10 per cent. to Southport and 15 per cent. to Carolina Beach.

The steamer Wilmington is an ever present source of pleasure and enjoyment for thousands of people during the season, and if the 1914 season is to be judged by the one just ended, indeed Carolina will be the beach next year.

VETERAN ANSWERS SUMMONS.

Mr. John B. Evans, Confederate Soldied, Dies at Brunswick Home.

Mr. John B. Evans died yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at his home near Town Creek, Brunswick county. He was in his 85th year and was one of Brunswick's oldest and best citizens. Many old friends and comrades in arms will learn of his demise with deep regret.

He was the last of five brothers, one of them his twin, who fought through the four years of Civil War, all the others having died some time since. His twin brother, Thomas S. Evans, died eight years ago. His other brothers were Ancrum H. Henry C. and Jacob A. Evans. He leaves one sister, Mrs. C. R. Galloway, of Town Creek. His other sister, Mrs. A. J. Muran, died last December at the advanced age of 90 years. His wife died many years since. Of his immediate family, there are one son, Mr. Walter R. Evins, of Town Creek, and two daughters, Mrs. C. S. Riggs, of East Wilmington, and Mrs. A. A. Fox, of Town Creek.

The funeral will take place about 4:30 P. M. today at the family burying ground at Zion church, near Town Creek, on the W. B. & S. railroad.

NEW LAW FIRM.

Messrs. T. C. Wooten and Paul D. Satchwell From Co-Partnership.

Announcement was made yesterday that Hon. T. C. Wooten, a leading lawyer of Kinston, who is well known throughtout Eastern Carolina, and Paul D. Satchwell, Esq., formerly of this city but for the past year a practicing attorney of Jacksonville, N. C., had formed a co-partnership and would locate in Wilmington for the practice of their profession, having secured a suite of offices in the handsome new building of the Atlantic Trust & Banking Company. They will remove to Wilmington and open their offices within the next two or three weeks. Mr. Wooten is recognized as one of the leading lawyers in this section of the state and will be given a cordial welcome to Wilmington. Mr. Satchwell has been practicing only a short time, but has built up a large clientele in his adopted town of Jacksonville. He was connected with the claim department of the Atlantic Coast Line in this city for a number of years.

FUNERAL OF DR. CULBRETH.

At Grace Methodist Church This Afternoon—Interment at Whiteville

The funeral of Dr. N. A. Culbreth, who died Monday night at the home of his son, Dr. N. A. Culberth, No. 707 Princess street, will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from Grace Methodist church, conducted by the paster, Rev. J. D. Bundy. Following the services the body will be taken to Whiteville on the 3:15 train where the interment will be made beside the graves of his two deceased children, Gray M. and Lubin Monroe Culbreth.

Dr. Culbreth was for many years before coming to Wilmington a resident of Whiteville, and married there. For the last five years up until a few months ago he had lived in Raleigh. He had a host of friends in all three places who extend tender sympathy to the bereaved family.

Sequel To Love For Doll

Maternal Instinct Greatly Developed by Teaching Children to Love their Dolls.

The little child's doll is mother to the most romantic fairy. And in the years that pass, the doll fades into the petals of a June rose, to evolve the most wondrous of all transformations.

And now comes a more serious period when the joy of real motherhood should be as tranquil as best effort can provide.

This is accomplished with a wonderful remedy known as Mother's Friend, an external application so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every cord, nerve, muscle and tendon involved.

There will be no pain, none of that nausea or morning sickness, no sensation of distress or strain of expanding muscles. The nerves, too, will be calm, thus making the period one of restful days, of peaceful nights and a source of happiest anticipation.

The young, expectant mother must be carefully watchful lest she become absorbed in those mental distresses which ilily prepare her for the most important event in her life.

Mother's Friend enables her to avoid all sensation of dread, worry or pain, and thus she is preserved in health and strength to take up the joyful task of motherhood.

You will find Mother's Friend on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle. Do not fail to use it regularly as directed. Write to-day to Bradfield Regulator Co., 135 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their most valuable little guide book for expectant mothers.

COTTON TAKES UPWARD JUMP

Government Crop Condition Report Causes Sensational Advance—Figures Even Less Favorable Than Anticipated

New York, Sept. 2.—The government report making the condition of the coming cotton crop only 68.2 per cent., compared with 74.8 last year and 73.2 two years ago, was followed by one of the most sensational advances that has ever occurred on a government report day during recent years. Private condition figures had prepared the trade for a bullish report, and the market had advanced very rapidly since the middle of last month, but the official figures proved even less favorable than anticipated, and inspired a general movement. The South was credited with selling on the advance, supposedly against the coming, but both trade interests and speculators were heavy buyers, and while offerings were heavy enough to cause slight reactions, the general tendency of the market was upward.

December contracts sold at 12.94, in the late trading, practically the 13-cent level, and 211 points, or 10.35 per bale above the low record of August 14th. Closing prices were 3 or 4 points off from the best, but the final tone was firm, at a net gain of 67 to 71 points, as compared with the closing figures of last Friday.

Local statisticians said that on the basis of the acreage, the official statement that 100 per cent. at this season of the year is equivalent to 252 pounds to the acre, today's figures pointed mathematically to a crop of not over 13,500,000 bales, and while these figures did not seem to be at all generally accepted, the action of the market certainly suggested a considerable scaling down of average crop views, particularly as deterioration reports have continued to come in, and the bulls claim that cotton has lost ground since the Government report was compiled.

Liverpool made a firm showing over the local holidays, and the market here opened firm at an advance of 8 to 23 points. Prices sold 30 to 35 points net higher before the government report was issued, and the market was extremely active during the entire day. According to New York figures the commercial crop of 1912-'13, 14,103,757 bales, and the New Orleans exchange estimated the world's consumption at 14,900,000 bales, suggesting a big decrease in the world's mill stocks for the season.

COTTON CONDITION REPORT

Report Has Shown Figures Lower Only Three Times During Past Twenty-two Years—Marked Deterioration Shown

Washington, Sept. 2.—The condition of the growing cotton crop of the United States on Monday, August 25, was 68.2 per cent of a normal, compared with 79.6 per cent on July 25th this year, 74.8 per cent on August 25th last year, 73.2 per cent in 1911 and 74.7 per cent the average condition on August 25th of the past ten years. This announcement was made today at noon by the Crop Reporting Board of the United States Department of Agriculture, the condition being estimated from reports of its correspondent and agents throughout the cotton belt.

Since the July report growing conditions had been generally favorable throughout the eastern section of the cotton belt and the condition of the plant in the States east of the Mississippi was expected to show up well. In the States west of the Mississippi conditions were not so favorable, drought in Texas and Oklahoma, parts of Arkansas, Missouri and Louisiana marking the early part of the period which today's report covers. High temperatures prevailed throughout most of this section. The drought was partially relieved during the last week of the period.

Marked Deterioration

The announcement of the Department of Agriculture disclosed the fact that the plants had deteriorated 11.4 per cent since the July report was taken. The August figures were the same as those of August, 1900, and the condition at this period has been lower only three times during the past 22 years: In 1896, when it was 64.2 per cent; in 1902, when it was 64.0 per cent, and in 1909, when it was 63.7 per cent.

The greatest deterioration was in Oklahoma, where the condition dropped 36 per cent to 45 per cent. In Texas the condition of 64 per cent showed a deterioration of 17 per cent. The deterioration in other States in the part of the belt stricken by drought was:

Arkansas, 15 per cent; Missouri, 14 per cent; Louisiana, 16 per cent; Tennessee, 10 per cent; Mississippi, 8 per cent, and Alabama, 5 per cent.

In all these States the condition was much below the ten-year average condition figures.

STOCK MARKET DEPRESSED

Wreck on New Haven Combines With Other Influences to Retard Progress—Crop and Financial Reports Disappointing

New York, Sept. 2.—It was a formidable list of depressing influences with which the stock market had to contend today. When trading was resumed after the triple holiday there was an outpouring of New Haven, following the news of today's wreck, which depressed the stock nearly three points, to 90¼, a new low record. Another bear factor was the unexpectedly poor bank statement of Saturday. July reports of some railroad systems emphasized that July results had been disappointing. Both Pennsylvania and New York Central reported increases in gross earnings, but heavier operating expenses.

As the day advanced, the market received a further setback from the government report disclosing a loss in condition larger than had been expected. Another move against the so-called anthracite trust by the government in the way of a suit against Reading depressed the Coalers.

In the face of these influences the stock market lost relatively little ground. Prices were bid up sharply at the outset, under the lead of the Coppers, which were benefited by the advancing tendency of the metal market. London buying estimated at 20,000 shares, helped put up prices. Canadian Pacific was marked up 4 points, and the Harrimans, Amalgamated, Chino, Utah Copper, and various other stocks a point or so. The rise was utilized to distribute stocks, however, and a reaction quickly came.

Early gains were lost, and as the day's unfavorable news developed the tone grew heavier. New York Central was especially weak, falling back three points. The close found prices in most cases under Friday's last figures.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $3,650,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks were 278,100 shares, including C. THE DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, Sept. 2.—The cotton goods markets were strong during the day, owing to the sharp advance in cotton, and the needs of converters and jobbers for quick goods. Silks are active, both in ribbons and piece goods. Yarns are higher.

¶ The race is not always to the swift—but most always.

¶ That hare and tortoise race would hardly be classed as a sporting event now.

¶ It is the man who delivers the goods who has the blue ribbon pinned on him in this year of our Lord.

¶ If you are running a square race young man, and the race goes to the tortoise, what you need is another job.

¶ Try the want ad way.

ment asks that the defendants be enjoined from voting the stock or from receiving dividends thereon.

The government attacks a contract between the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey and the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company by which they are alleged to be joined in a community of interest and asks that the lease of the Lehigh & Susquehanna Railroad, owned by the Navigation Company, to the Central Railroad Company be cancelled unless materially modified so as to avoid restraint of trade.

Violates Commodity Clause

The commodities clause of the Inter-State Commerce act, the government contends, is being violated by the Reading Railway Company in transporting the coal mined by the Reading Coal Company, owned by the former; by the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey, in transporting the coal of the Lehigh & Wilkesbarre Coal Company, owned by the Central Railroad, and by the Lehigh & Susquehanna Railroad Company in carrying the coal mined by the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company and by the Lehigh & New England Railroad Company in transporting the coal of the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company. Injunctions against a continuance of these relationships are sought.

In furtherance of the alleged monopoly, the Reading Coal Company is charged with purchasing from other producers from 800,000 to 1,400,000 tons of anthracite annually, thereby giving the coal company control of upwards of 85 per cent of the total shipments of hard coal over the Reading Railway Company's lines.

Morgan Formed Trust

The Reading combination was formed in 1901 at the instigation it is declared, of J. P. Morgan & Company, who had dominated the company since its re-organization in 1896. For the purpose of extending the power of the Reading system from the Schuylkill region, where it long had monopolized the production and transportation of anthracite, into the two remaining regions—the Wyoming and the Lehigh—the Reading Holding Co., acquired a majority of the stock of the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey. This consolidation, taking into consideration the Central Railroad Company of New Jersey's contractual relationship with the Lehigh Coal & Navigation Company, gave the Reading Company control of 63 per cent of all the unmined authracite in Pennsylvania, and resulted in the confederation of the railroad and canal transportation controlled by the interests involved.

The petition in equity, filed by United States Attorney John C. Swartley, is signed by Attorney General McReynolds, G. Carroll Todd, assistant to the attorney general, and Frederic R. Coudert and Howard Thayer Kingsbury, special assistants to the attorney general.

Mr. McReynolds is particularly interested in this litigation by reason of his long connection with the government's prosecution of the "hard coal trust." He was special counsel for the government in all the suits previously filed.

FIRST BALE OF COTTON.

Farmer Smith Sells it on Roseboro Market—Lady 102 Years Old.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Roseboro, N. C., Sept. 2.—Mr. D. H. Smith brought the first bale of cotton to town today and sold it at 11 3-4 cents. his is the first new cotton sold in the county that we have heard of. Roseboro is a fine coton market and in fact any other market that a farmer wants to sell on.

Crops are very good in all this section. Corn reminds one of the seven years of plenty. Cotton has been considerably injured by the drought and we hear complaints from every section about the boll weevil. A good deal of long staple will be made around here. Farmers say the weevil is worse in it than the other.

Friends regretted deeply the death of Mrs. Mary I. Culbreth which occurred yesterday. She was buried today in the family burying grounds near Roseboro. Mrs. Culbreth was 84 years old and a most consecrated woman, loved by all who knew her. health had been declining for some time, but was not such as to confine her to bed until two weeks ago. She expressed herself as being willing to go and meet her husband who died years ago.

There will be a family reunion at Mr. Willie Butler's tomorrow for his mother-in-law, who is 102 years old and has hundreds of great-grandchildren, grandchildren and a number of children.

BLING PEOPLE MEET.

Annual Convention Being Held in Greensboro—the Programme.

Greensboro, Sept. 2.—The North Carolina Association for the Blind met here in annual session tonight and will continue for three days. The meetings are being held in the Smith Memorial building. The convention was called to order by President Henry G. Easley, of High Point, and was followed by the invocation by Dr. Melton Clark, pastor of the Firts Presbyterian church. The address of welcome was by Mayor Thomas J. Murphy and the response by J. J. Marshall, a delegate from Macon.

The principal address of the evening was delivered by Dr. Tucker, of Charlotte, on the prevention of blindness. D. H. Parsons, of High Point, spoke on "How to get the Home for Blind Women." John E. Ray, principal of the state school for the blind at Raleigh also spoke.

Tomorrow morning the convention will elect officers and transact other business. Thursday afternoon a bazaar will be open at a local dry goods store, diplaying hand work of the blind. Friends of the blind will also contribute and the proceeds will go towards the home for the blind.

Thursday night the annual concert will be held in the Smith Memorial building by musicians of the association who are said to be among the best in the South. Friday night a concert will be given by the White Oak band. The proceeds from these concerts will go to the home. The Chamber of Commerce has provided entertainment for the delegates, of which there are nearly 100.

LOYALISTS POSSESS NANKING

Two Hundred Rebels Killed in Fight Near South Gate

hanghai, ept. 2.—The whole of Nanking is now in possession of the Loyalists. The rebels have vacated Lion Hill. There was fierce fighting throughout the night around the outh Gate, 200 rebels being killed. A message from Wu-Hu reports that the revolt there has collapsed, the rebels having accepted $30,000 paid by the merchants to lay down their arms. The government is now supreme throughout the Yang Tse valley.

TWENTY-SIX KILLED IN WRECK ON NEW HAVEN

merce commission to test all automatic train stops at the expense of inventors and require all railroads to install approved automoatic stops within twelve years.

Representative Britton of Illinois, in a resolution settinfi forth a total of 429 persons had been killed or injured in 14 wrecks during the past two years, on the New Haven system, proposed that the Inter-State Commerce Commission be directed to make an immediate and thorough investigation as to the cause of the latest accident. The preamble declared that the casualties indicated extreme negligence on the part of the traiffic managers and officers of the railroad, obsolete unsafe and inadequate equipment, or that the "desire for dividents is paramount to the proper protection of the traveling public."

Prompt Investigation

Washington, Sept. 2.—Upon receipt of news that the New Haven wreck Chief Inspector H. M. Belknap, of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, left for Walling Conn., to direct an investigation. Telegrams were sent by the commission to Field Inspector A. F. Howard and A. K. Swazey, of Springfield, Mass.; D. D. Lyon, of New York, and J. W. Hawley, of North Adams, Mass., directing them to report at once to Wallingford to assist in the inquiry.

Commissioner McChord telegraphed to the New Haven officials a demand that none of the wreckage be removed or destroyed until after representatives of the commission have conducted their investigation of the disaster. Tonight he received assurances from General Manafer Woodard that the road would comply with his request.

This action was taken, the commissioner stated, because in the wreck on the same road at Stamford, Conn., June 12th, last, some of the passenger cars were promptly burned up by the railroad and thus valuable evidence destroyed. "The commission does net propose to have this operation repeated if it can prevent it," he added.

Wreck Cleared, However

There is very little left of the wreck of the three sleepers of the Bar Harbor Express tonight. The wooden cars were smashed almost to splinters and the mass of wreckage was set afire by road employes. The engine was hauled away, the sleeper Chisholm, which had been overturned, was righted and pulled to New Haven, and the cars which were unharmed proceeded to their destination.

Engine 1337 of the White Mountain train, was not badly damaged.

LABOR DAY IN GOTHAM

Thousands of Spectators Witness the Smallest Parade of Recent Years

New York, Sept. 1.—With fewer than 5,000 workers in line labor today held its smallest parade in years in this city. Marching through Fifth avenue under clear skies and in the presence of thousands of spectators who thronged the sidewalks the toilers observed the holiday by commemorating a condition of industrial peace that makes this Labor Day an unusual one in the recent history of local trade unionism. No serious dispute between employer and employee exists in New York at this time.

In the line were 39 women who made a brave showing under their colored banners bearing such inscriptions as "Get together girls and organize," and "Equal work, equal pay, equal say."

For the first time in 35 years Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor did not come here to speak on Labor Day. Mr. Gompers is recovering from an illness in Atlantic City.

PRINTERS' UNION BASEBALL

Sixth Annual Tournament Opens at Pittsburgh—Games

Pittsburgh, Sept. 1.—The sixth annual tournament of the Union Printers' Baseball League opened here today. Elimination games are scheduled to continue until Saturday, when the Garry Homman trophy will be contested for. There were two games today. St. Louis defeated Indianapolis 7 to 4, while Washington won from St. Paul 7 to 0. The schedule tomorrow calls for games between New York and Chicago and Boston and Cincinnati.

COTTON ADVANCES

Prices Rise from $3 to $3.50 on the Bale

New Orleans, Sept. 2.—The price of cotton today advanced $3 to $3.50 a bale. Long buying was mainly responsible. This was inspired by continued droughty conditions in the Western belt, the government condition report and the consumption report. When the trade had digested the condition figures there was additional buying and in the trading up to 2 o'clock the advance was widened to 63 to 71 points on the most active months.

M'CLUNG STILL IN JAIL.

Young West Virginan Who is Wanted on Murder Charge in His State

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 2.—Tollie B. McClung, the young teacher of the Greensboro Commercial School, who was arrested here on a murder charge preferred by West Virginia officials yesterday, is still in jail and niether he nor his twin brothers who own the school, have made any statement that will throw light on the charge against him.

It is expected that officers will arrive from West Virginia sometime tonight to carry McClung back to his native State. The young man has lived here for several months, is a most intelligent and highly respected youth and of good family. The only thing that has been said to indicate anything was the suggestion of the defendant when he heard a lawyer cousin had sent one of the telegrams here that there had long been a family feud at home. McClung just returned from a vacation in West Virginia Sunday night, and it is thought that the offense with with he is charged was committed during that time.

AMBASSADOR FOR SPAIN

Legation at Madrid to be Raised at Once to an Embassy

Washington, Sept. 2.—The United States legation at Madrid will be raised immediately to an embassy as the result of the passage by the House today of the Senate bill, which authorizes the President to appoint an ambassador to Spain at $17,500 a year. The President urged the change. Joseph E. Willard, former lieutenant governor of Virginia, has been mentioned as the probable first ambassador to Spain. Chairman Flood, of the Foreign Affairs. committee, said Spain had indicated its desire to create a Spanish embassy at Washington. He received a letter from Secretary Bryan approving the change. "The action will be gratifying to all Spanish-speaking countries," the secretary wrote. "Spain has as you know, ambassadors at the leading courts of Europe, and has a right to expect this mark of respect."

FRANCIS BURTON HARRISON

Sworn in as Governor General of the Philippine Islands

Washington, Sept. 2.—Francis Burton Harrison, who resigned yesterday as representative from New York, today was sworn in as governor-general of the Philippines in the office here of Brigadier General McIntyre, head of the Bureau of Insular Affairs. Governor Harrison will have an interview with Secretary Garrison in New York tomorrow to talk over general policy in regard to the government of the islands. Thursday he will leave New York preparatory to sailing from San Francisco September 20th.

—Mr. Waldo Moore was arrested last night by Officer H. G. Bullard on a charge of exceeding the speed limit with an automobile. Messrs. W. H. McEachernand, H. H. Jones were arrested by the same officer for not having rear lights on their machines. They were recognized for their apparance before the Recorder this morning.

Polk Was First "Dark Horse."

The first man in a national convention to be spoken of as a "dark horse" was James K. Polk, who was nominated for president at the Democratic national convention of 1844. His opponents in the convention were Martin Van Buren and Lewis Cass.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC—We have been receiving requests for some time that we handle "Rough Dry," the same as the laundries in the larger cities; that is, wash, starch and dry the clothes, returning them ready to be ironed. Desiring to meet the demands of our customers, we some time ago agreed to handle a few bundles. We found that we could not handle same successfully, unless we were equipped with special machinery for that purpose. We decided, therefore, to install the special machinery. We now have same ready for use, and beg that you come and inspect the same. We will be ready for your bundle early Monday morning. Do not forget that we make a specialty of washing blankets. City Laundry Co., 'Phone 249. 22 North Second street. au30,ss,su,tu-12t

BITS OF HISTORY

NEW STYLE TIME

The New Style Calendar was adopted by England and her Colonies in 1752. The change made September 3rd become September 14th, and the eleven days intervening remain lost for all time. The loss of those days injured no one as each person lost the same eleven days and no business was recorded between the dates mentioned.

But about the days that are lost from time to time by each of us. Those persons who have never had a Bank Account have lost a great many days, during which a little surplus might have been growing. Lose no more days, but start now.

On what you save this Bank allows 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly.
